GOLDBARS TAKEN

SENSATIONAL ROBBERY ON KAISER WILHELM.

TREASURE WAS IN TRANSIT

THE SHIP'S STRONG BOX WAS LOOTED.

GOLD WAS VALUED AT $22,000

MANNER OF THE ROBBERY IS NOT KNOWN.

New York, April 10.—The robbery at sea of the specie room of the North German Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse seems a mysterious crime. Apparently there has been complete failure to locate either the missing gold bullion or the men who took it although the search of passengers and ship at Bremen again this morning may furnish material for the investigation. Three bars of gold, aggregating in value $22,750, shipped by the National City bank of New York, were stolen from cask No. 4, of the specie room, somewhere between this port and Cherbourg. The advice to Oelrichs & Co., agents of the company, came in German, and on the point as to whether the specie room was broken open or entered by beating the lock admits of translation either way.

The specie room of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse is iron bound and almost as strong as a vault. Its door was secured by a patent lock, for which there were but two keys. One of the keys was kept by the chief officer, the other by the purser.

The bars of gold were packed in oak casks bound with iron hoops. Thousands of dollars in gold were within the reach of the man who forced his way in the strong room, but only the sum named was taken.

At the office of the North German Lloyd agents this morning the following statement was given to the Associated Press:

"Three bars of gold value at $22,750 were taken from the specie room of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse somewhere between here and Cherbourg. The bars were taken from cask four, but we have no idea as to how the robbery was accomplished. Our advice is brief and do not show how the room was entered. The gold was shipped by the National City bank of New York. We understand it was insured, but the question of responsibility will be passed upon later. The ship is due at Bremen today and we may hear further from there. We have not received this gold and this office has no knowledge of the thieves. The specie room is a strong safe one, secured by patent lock, to which there were but two keys. The chief officer kept one key, the purser the other. We will make every possible effort to recover the money and catch the thieves."

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED.

Bremen Haven, April 10.—It is officially announced that two bars of gold were stolen during the voyage of the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which left New York April 2 and arrived at Cherbourg April 9. The company has offered a reward of 10,000 marks for their restitution or for the discovery of the thieves.

STOLEN ON THE VESSEL.

London, April 10.—The offer of a reward for the return of the gold stolen from the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse or for the discovery of the thieves appears to effectually dispose of the theory first advanced that the bars were stolen previous to having been sent on board the steamer. No clues, however, seem to be forthcoming regarding the perpetrator of the robbery. Passengers of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse who were landed at Southampton told a representative of the Associated Press that they knew nothing of the matter until they read of it in the newspapers this morning. It was observed that there were no special precautions or searchings of the passengers disembarked, though there was some comment caused by the delay of seven hours in landing the passengers at Cherbourg, where the steamer arrived at 11 o'clock Monday night. But, contrary to custom, the passengers were kept on board until 6 o'clock in the morning. The officers of the steamer explained that the steamer would not come out. But this failed to satisfy the impatient passengers, who, however, were quite ignorant until they landed that their detention was due to the initial investigations consequent upon the theft and the precautions exercised at Cherbourg. But the fact that these precautions were not observed subsequently at Southampton was taken to indicate that the officials believe the conspiracy has its chief end on the continent. The passengers are inclined to believe that the robbery must have been accomplished by an individual exceptionally conversant with the arrangements of the steamship company, for not one of the cabin passengers, apparently, knew there was specie on board, much less where it was kept.

HOW GOLD IS TRANSPORTED.

New York, April 10.—The gold bars stolen from the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, the discovery of which has just been made at Cherbourg, France, were doubtless a part of a shipment of $500,000 in gold made by the National City bank of this city. The gold was withdrawn from the assay office here and taken aboard the Kaiser Wilhelm on Monday, April 1. The liner sailed next day. At police headquarters no notice has been received of the reported loss last night. Shipments of gold are always heavily insured. The gold is taken from the assay office in trucks, usually in sealed kegs. All the kegs are locked in a specie vault on board the steamship in the presence of the representatives of the shipper. When the vessel reaches its destination the kegs are again checked off so that any loss may be immediately discovered. Anonymous sums in gold are shipped back and forth across the Atlantic when conditions are favorable to such movements. Some vessels have carried as much as $5,000,000 on a single trip, but in recent years at least not a dollar has been lost.

IS UP TO THE SCHOOL BOARD

TRUSTEES' CALL.

Nothing Yet Done By the Board to Realize the Benefits of Mr.

Carnegie's Gift.

What's the matter with the school trustees? That question is being numerously asked. It is over a week now since the last letter was received from Mr. Carnegie, stating that $75,000 for the erection of a public library building is at the disposal of the proper authorities at any time, at the office of Mr. Carnegie's cashier at Pittsburgh. Every move made by the city for securing the donation was met promptly by Mr. Carnegie in a brief and business like way and it is now, as it has been for a week, up to the school trustees to act. In an interview with a member of the board a week ago, he said that the matter would be discussed at the regular meeting of the board, which was to have been held last Monday night. It was at the time suggested that the city should act as promptly as Mr. Carnegie did, and that the board might call a special meeting to formulate plans and decide upon a course of action, but the idea was not considered and it was said that there would be plenty of time to discuss the matter at the regular meeting. The Sentinel has it upon good authority that the board for some reason did not have a meeting at all on Monday, but had one last evening, and that the library matter was not even taken up. The public feels that it is entitled to know the occasion for this apparently needless delay. The building season is at hand, the site is already procured and the money is ready. It is not understood why the trustees should not make at least a preliminary move in the direction of acquiring the benefit from Mr. Carnegie's magnificent generosity.

It has been suggested that a committee should be selected to go to Pittsburgh and receive suggestions from Mr. Carnegie's managers, and that such a committee could easily be selected without cost to the city or the board. A member or two from the Woman's Club league, the investigators of the movement; the board of school trustees, delegates from the city department, a delegate or two from the Commercial club and perhaps one or two other public spirited citizens, including an architect, have been suggested as a suitable and representative body of citizens to take the preliminary steps.

SITE IS SELECTED

FOR FORT WAYNE'S NEW HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.

BOARD HAS SECURED OPTION

FINE TRACT ON LEWIS, BARR AND MONTGOMERY STREETS.

OLD HAMILTON HOMESTEAD

CAN NOT BUY UNTIL LAW IS IN FORCE.

Ever since it became apparent that there would be no difficulty in securing the passage of the law authorizing the issuing of bonds for a new high school and manual training school building for this city the school board has been searching for desirable sites for the structure. While this task was by no means an easy one, the board has finally settled upon the Hamilton tract as being in all respects the most desirable. Miss Margaret Hamilton, the owner of the property, has given the school board an option upon the eastern portion of the property, a tract of 150 feet in width and 320 in length.

A CENTRAL LOCATION.

The site selected is said to be very near the geographical center of the city, and members of the board are assured that the selection will be very generally acceptable to the people of the city. There will be a frontage of 150 feet on East Lewis and on Montgomery streets, while lengthwise the site runs for 320 feet along the western side of Barr street. The surroundings are in every way desirable for school purposes, it is far enough removed from the main business streets to avoid the noise of traffic, yet not too remote to be easily accessible. The view from every side of the building will be pleasing, and the tract is surrounded by many fine old trees. Many of these will, of course, have to be removed, but the conditions are such as will produce a location of great beauty.

SAW OTHER SITES.

The selection of the site was made only after a protracted investigation of every other location sufficiently suitable to be favorably considered. Among these locations were the Agster property at Harrison and Jefferson streets, which proved entirely too small. The same difficulty was encountered in the consideration of Montgomery Hamilton's property on Clinton street, while the Tabor property at Jefferson and Fulton streets was deemed too far west from the center of the city.

The price fixed by the option given by Miss Hamilton is not made public for the present, as the board states that it can go no farther until the promulgation of the law under which the new structure is to be erected. Information from Indianapolis is to the effect that the work of printing the laws is being rushed through, and Governor Durbin's proclamation declaring them effective may be expected by the middle of May at least. Until this is done the school board can not make the purchase of a site.

OFFERED FOR LIBRARY.

A portion of the site was once offered by Miss Hamilton to the city for library purposes, but the location at West Wayne and Webster streets was selected in its stead. The school board believes no other available site in the city would be so desirable for a high school and manual training school as the land selected. An attempt was made to secure a plot 200 feet in width, but Miss Hamilton will not at present part with more than 150 feet. She stipulates, however, that she will reserve an additional fifty feet, free from buildings of every character adjoining the site selected, and that at some future time the city will be given the first opportunity of adding it to the grounds.

Upon the north portion of the site stands a residence occupied by Mr. Detzer, and this will be removed by Miss Hamilton. The studio of the Fort Wayne School of Art will also have to be placed in a new location. The main entrance of the building will be on Lewis street. The board has not yet made a selection of an architect for the building, and has not even decided ing, and has not even decided whether an architect will be commissioned to proceed with the drawings, or whether the selection will be made competitive. The school board will hold a meeting tomorrow evening, though, as previously stated, little more can be done toward preparing for the new building until the new laws are in effect.

SITUATION IS UNCHANGED.

The situation at the city hall with regard to the police commissioners is absolutely unchanged. Mr. Trentman returned from Pittsburgh last night and this morning had a brief and informal talk with Mr. Geake and Mr. Bash, but they decided upon nothing and have not even engaged counsel, although J. B. Harper is looking up some points of law for them. Mr. Trentman left this afternoon for Hartford City and may not return before Friday, and there is to be nothing done until his return. Mr. Bash could not be seen today, he having gone to the country, but will return this evening. No letter has yet been received from the attorney general, if of there has, it has not been made public. From the tenor of a dispatch from the attorney general, advising the commissioners to engage local counsel, it looks very much as though the authorities at Indianapolis consider that having made the appointments, it is up to the appointees to do the rest, and they wash their hands of the whole matter.

FIRE IN INSANE HOSPITAL.

Indianapolis, April 10.—Fire, which broke out at 3 a. m. in the women's building of the insane hospital at Mount Jackson, just west of the city limits, was brought under control before serious property damage was done. Great difficulty was experienced in controlling the patients of the two wards and getting them to a place of safety. This was accomplished by the female nurses, who displayed rare heroism. Two nurses—Margaret Waltham and Kate Nolan—were severely scorched, but none of the patients was injured. Property loss nominal.

NEWS IN POLICE CIRCLES.

John W. Knowbitt was the only candidate at police court this morning, and he claimed to be a novice. A deep milky way of penitence encircled his countenance like a fog and he expressed all kinds of regret at the unfortunate vigilance of the arresting officer. Mr. Knowbitt was carting around a ponderous bag in a buggy. He insisted on driving on the sidewalk or otherwise infracting the rules and usages of refined society. The mayor told him that the next time he got drunk and the horse was sober he should throw the lines over the dashboard and trust to providence and let him go.

Chicken thieves have been reported in the vicinity of Lafayette and Pontiac streets.

Grocer Hermsdorfer, of West Jefferson street, reported to the police that a boy who was working for him had disappeared, carrying with him the key to the store, looking for the proprietor. The police promised to look for the boy and meantime advised Mr. Hermsdorfer to unlock his door with an ax.

A runaway horse, found to be the property of a Mrs. Nichtenhauser, was captured by the police last night and stabled at the Drake barn on Pearl street. Subsequently the owner of the horse put in an appearance and claimed the outfit.

An old lady, badly crippled, giving her name as Mrs. Woodburn and her home as Angola, was left at the Lake Shore hotel last evening by parties named Daly. They were expected to return but failed to show up. The old lady said that she was brought to town to sign some papers whereby the Dalys could get some money belonging to her and she could not understand why she should be abandoned. Persons who conversed with the lady are of the opinion that she is slightly demented. Meantime the humane officer is investigating the case.

FIRE ON A TRANSPORT.

New York, April 10.—Fire was discovered in the second hold of the transport Rawlins early today. A quantity of hay was stored in the hold and the firemen endeavored to confine the flames to the one part of the vessel. The Rawlins was at the government pier, Brooklyn, and was to have sailed for Cuba this afternoon. The Rawlins sunk in the mud at her pier. The damage to the transport is estimated at $30,000 and to the cargo at $80,000.

The local union of cigarmakers will turn out in a body tonight for the labor parade which is to inaugurate the Trades and Labor council fair in the Saengerbund building.

ANNUAL REPORT OF AMERICAN
BIBLE SOCIETY.

New York, April 10.—The annual report of the American Bible society relative to the situation in China, will contain the following interesting statements from its agent in China, the Rev. John R. Hykes, D. D.:

"There was a deep and cunningly laid plot, under imperial sanction, to extirpate Christians, expel all foreigners and destroy all foreign interests.

"No one divined the full extent of the iniquity which was deliberately contemplated.

"In all 183 protestant missionaries, including 60 men, 75 women and 48 children have been massacred.

"With the exception of the massacres at Ku Choo in Chekiang, in which eleven persons were killed, and at Hengchoo in Hunan, all of the deaths occurred in the northern provinces.

"The question has been raised at home as to whether the boxer uprising was anti-foreign or anti-missionary in its character. No doubt exists in the mind of any well-informed persons in China. The movement was undoubtedly against foreigners, as such; and the crusade was directed against everything foreign—Christianity, of course, included.

ALTERED DEATH DECREE.

Hsu Ching Cheng and Yuen Chang, two ministers of the foreign office would not transmit the awful edict which reiterated the order to 'painfully extirpate all foreigners,' but changed it so as to read 'protect all foreigners,' and then sent it flying over the wires to the remotest provinces. They were sentenced to be cut in two. Missionaries were the class that benefitted by these acts of heroism. The fact that every missionary escaped from fourteen out of the eighteen provinces would indicate that the crusade was not specially anti-missionary.

"In the provinces of Chih Li and Shanai every school, hospital, chapel and dwelling was looted and burned by the boxers or imperial troops, the only exception being the property in the foreign settlement at Tien Tsin. So complete was the demolition of property by these mad fanatics that not a vestige was left to mark the site; even the foundations were dug up and carried away. There was also destruction of mission property in the provinces of Shensi, Hoonan, Kuanan, Huhai, Kiangsi, Chekiang and Kwantung. The native Christians have been the worst sufferers. Those who escaped the general slaughter in the northern provinces lost absolutely everything, and many of them are perishing from cold and starvation.

SCRIPTURES DESTROYED.

"The scriptures destroyed will aggregate not less than one hundred thousand volumes and the actual loss to the society will not be less than eight or ten thousand gold dollars, including the necessary expense of getting workers to places of safety and back again to their stations. All of our foreign superintendents were saved. We have to mourn the loss of many noble and devoted native workers. They were warned of the risk they were running, but not a man of the noble band of eighteen flinched. Their reply was, 'We go on a colportage tour. God's will be done.'

"Only four of the eighteen returned from that journey. The homes of these martyrs were looted and burned and their families exterminated.

NOT ONE ESCAPED.

"Of the colporteurs under missionary supervision I have not heard of one who escaped. In some parts of China colporteurs endured terrible persecution and some of them are only now venturing out of hiding.

"More than forty thousand native converts (including Roman Catholics) met death with a heroism worthy of the best age of the church.

"While the total number of the volumes of the scriptures published is 37,000 less than the previous year, the number of pages is slightly in excess. The number of pages printed in 1890 was 76,932,300 this year it was 77,646,700, or about three-quarters of a million more. This is the largest number of pages printed in one year by the China agency, and will give some idea of proportions to which the work had grown when, in common with all forms of Christian works, it was suddenly interrupted by the events of the past year.

"The number of Mandarin bibles manufactured is worthy of special notice. There were received from the printers no less than 16,500 complete Bibles, and 5,000 copies were in press on December 31. Ten years ago an edition of 2,000 copies was thought sufficient to meet the demand for several years. This fairly indicates the growth of the native church during this period, for it is from native Christians that the demand for these Bibles comes."

FAIR OPENS TONIGHT.

A force of men has been working day and night preparing for the opening of the Trades council fair at Saengerbund hall tonight. The booths have all been built, the decorations are nearly completed, the exhibits will be in place by evening and a rousing opening is expected. All members of organized labor are requested to meet at the city hall at 7:15 this evening to participate in a parade, which will be headed by the Wayne Tent band. The call for this parade is published elsewhere and the committee hopes that there will be a liberal turnout of marchers promptly at the hour set. At 10:30 there will be a free dance and many other amusements have been provided.

RUSSO-JAPANESE RUPTURE IS ABOUT HEALED.

JAPAN IS WELL SATISFIED

OFFICIAL NEWS FROM TOKIO IS REASSURING.

JAPAN IS TRUSTING RUSSIA

ACCEPTS STATEMENT AS MADE
IN GOOD FAITH.

Washington, April 10.—The Japanese minister, Mr. Takahira, today received official advice from the foreign office at Tokio entirely dispelling the alarming reports as to a Russo-Japanese rupture and showing that the Japanese government accepted the latest declaration of Russia on Manchuria with the same sense of satisfaction that it had been received by the United States. Mr. Takahira called at the state department and informed Secretary Hay of the gratifying turn of events.

The position of Japan, as now defined in the highest official quarter, is practically the same as that of the United States. A copy of the recent Russian communication was delivered to Japan at the same time it was given to this government, and although the texts differ slightly they are alike on all material points. The Japanese government now makes known that it accepts this declaration as made in entire good faith, and like the United States it is quite satisfied to leave the Manchurian question in its present status.

As the other powers already have indicated their acceptance of the Russian declaration, the course of Japan removes the last possibility of division, and appears to restore the harmonious concert which has thus far proceeded in dealing with China.

PRESS ABANDONS RESERVES.

St. Petersburg, April 10.—3 p. m.—The Russian press is abandoning that reserve with which it first discussed the government's declaration on the subject of Manchuria. It now declares that the joy with which the British press greeted China's refusal to sign the Manchurian agreement has merely postponed the signing of a new understanding with China, since the convention would be advantageous to China. One paper says: "Our London friends overlooked the fact that in the discussion of the signing of the agreement they did not hasten the evacuation of Manchuria, but strengthened Russia's position."

THE SEWER MIX-UP.

The South Wayne sewer problem has not yet been settled, but is in course of adjustment. The board, City Attorney Shambaugh, Mr. McCulloch and his attorneys, Barrett & Morris, and Contractor Peter had another lengthy consultation this morning and a new contract is being drawn which will be sent to Mr. Adams to sign. The difficulty lies in getting together on a price for the tunnel work. As matters now stand Mr. McCulloch can get out without any loss, but Mr. Adams has a contingent profit in the contract which he insists on having. This looks very nery to the board of works on the part of Mr. Adams, but he appears to be built on a nery plan. City Attorney Shambaugh is of the opinion, however, that the matter will be settled within a day or two and the contract will be let to Peter or someone else. Mr. Adams is in the hole and if he wants to get out he will have to get out mighty quick, as the board has notified all parties that the question must be settled once for all within the stipulated twenty days.

HURT IN A RUNAWAY.

Mrs. Rittenhouse, residing at 164 East DeWald street, was painfully injured in a runaway accident yesterday afternoon. While driving on Berry street, near Ewing, another driver collided with her carriage, and her horse becoming frightened ran away, overturning the rig and throwing the occupant out. Mrs. Rittenhouse was quite badly out and bruised about the head, and received medical attention at the office of a nearby physician. The horse was captured some time later on Pearl street, with a part of the buggy still attached to it.

AN HISTORIC DAY

ANNIVERSARY OF LEE'S SUR-RENDER TO GRANT.

PATRIOTISM GLOWED IN SONG

APPOMATTOX DAY IS SPLENDID-
LY CELEBRATED.

Appomattox day, the anniversary of Lee's surrender to General Grant thirty-six years ago, was appropriately observed by Fort Wayne veterans Tuesday evening under the auspices of encampment No. 51, Union Veteran Legion. The exercises were held in the court house assembly room, where the stage had been tastefully decorated under the direction of Col. John A. Scott. The national colors, portraits of prominent union generals, standards of arms and electric lighting effects were tastefully combined in an effective setting that was very attractive.

The assembly room was completely filled when Colonel McClelland called the meeting to order and introduced Major James Liggett as presiding officer. Following the invocation by Rev. S. D. Spillman the Choral quartet rendered a selection and Congressman Robinson was introduced.

THEN AND NOW.

In part Mr. Robinson said:
"Then and now presents a theme that brings both joy and sorrow to every patriotic American heart—years of joy, gratitude and thanksgiving
when we remember the final victory of April 9, 1865; and sorrow when we see the passing of that magnificent army, the army that saved the union and crushed once and forever
the serpent of disunion that first arose more than forty years ago. It brings sadness when we see the ravages in the ranks that thirty-six years of time have wrought. That army marched to dare and to do, and its success at Appomattox was not alone theirs, but the success of the hopes, the efforts and the aspirations of every comrade in the field, and of every patriotic man and woman living today. It is indeed a sorrow that this great army is passing away.
Almost every day within the confines of even this congressional district a soldier's life goes out; the frosts of many winters are upon the heads of the comrades here tonight.

"On that day thirty-six years ago
the greatest general of the south yielded to General Grant, the greatest general of the war, and possibly of the world. Thus was established the integrity and the indivisibility of the union. Grant's record as a soldier and publicist are open pages
upon the records of the world."

The speaker traced the career of Grant through the war, told of Lincoln's unvarying support to the western general even at a time when the northern press and public were crying out against him. After the victory had been won Lincoln fell by the assassin's hand, yet he lived long enough to see the fruition of his fondest hopes—the supremacy of law upon every foot of American soil.

Continuing, he said:
"It was left to his successors to readjust conditions after the struggle;
to witness that final march of the battle-scarred veterans through the streets of Washington on that last great review which brought home the truth of the sentiment that the only debt the country can never repay is the debt it owes its soldiers. And this is as true in peace as it was in war." Congressman Robinson concluded with a magnificent tribute to the veteran soldier, and he was cordially applauded.

DR. MCGOOGAN SPEAKS.

Following a cleverly rendered recitation of Miss Ella Keel, Dr. G. B.
McGoogan was introduced. Dr. Mc-Googan referred to the birth of Grant seventy-nine years ago at Point Pleasant, Ohio, sketched his career in boyhood, at West Point, in the Mexican war, in business at Galena, Ill., and spoke of the outbreak of the civil war. "Here," said the speaker,
"the babe grown to manhood offered his services to this country, and he gave the best years of his life to its cause. Coming down to that scene thirty-six years ago tonight we gaze upon the greatest tableaux in American history. Lee, majesty in bearing and dignity—Grant in impressive simplicity demonstrating the grandeur of the nobility of the heart and the aristocracy of the brain. There stood the old warriors; the picture was the culmination of the war; the landmark of the rebellion. As Sumter four years before was the opening of the struggle, here was the close, reached through a pathway strewn with patriots' bodies. It was the sum total of all the battles, all the charges, all the heartaches, all the deaths, all the woes of four years of dreadful conflict. Grant here represented not only his own greatness, but the glory of every man who had left his home to fight for his country.

"Of the fruits of that great struggle I need speak but briefly. The old world had said a free government could not exist; here it was tried in the crucible. Veterans, let me say tonight that while your praises will be sung and monuments will be erected to your valor for all time,
the grandest tribute to your honor, your bravery and your patriotism is a united country and an unsullied flag."

Mrs. Bertha Fry pleased the veterans immensely with her recitation,
"The Two Vests," and was compelled to respond to an encore, while little Glady's Greek, who followed, also scored a triumph.

THE PRIVATE SOLDIER.

The closing address was delivered by James E. Graham, who said in opening that the committee had asked him to tell the audience that there were some private soldiers in the army. In part, Mr. Graham said:
"I am glad to say there were a few privates in that great army, yet I do not propose to draw invidious distinctions between private and the officer, for together they constituted the symmetry of the army. Each was absolutely necessary to the other,
and it is an honor to have been a common soldier behind the musket. War was not our trade, our profession or our desire, but in the hour of the country's peril there was developed a patriotism that was sublime.

"There is no place on earth where human nature is so developed as in the army. If there is a mean streak in a man anywhere, it will develop there. And just as truly the splen-dior attributes of nobility of nature and of character are brought to the surface in the ranks. A friend there was a friend down to the last drop in his canteen and the last crumb in his haversack. And it was not the bully and the braggart that made the best patriotic fellow, strapping though he soldier, but the quiet, determined, may have been, was the one who,
with steady nerve behind his ashen face, met the bullets' hail sturdily and splendidly. A thorough comradeship, too, existed between the common soldier and the good officer.

"It is forty years since that first shot in Charleston harbor started the most gigantic struggle of modern times—a strife that excelled anything witnessed by English-speaking people, and on which hung the destinies of the nations of the earth. Upon it were turned in hope the faces of all the down-trodden peoples of the earth, while tyrants looked on in dismay. And after four years of terrible conflict, when America's best blood had been shed to enrich American liberty—after the auction block had been wiped out by the sacrifice of blood and treasure—at Appomattox, April 9, 1865, it culminated. There in the eyes of the world the union army wrote in the gaze of the world
the declaration that popular government, before an experiment, had become a fixed fact, and that this country was to have but one flag.

"Comrades, it is nearly thirty-six years since we stacked arms, folded our tents and returned to peaceful pursuits as a part of the citizenship of the greatest country the world has ever known. The union soldier has had no small part in making this country what it is today. I undertake to say that no class of citizens has done more in war and in peace for the glory of this country than has the common soldier of the union army."

Little Miss Greek and Robert Hamilton gave a dialogue that was highly enjoyed, and in response to an encore Master Hamilton sang a solo.
After another selection by the quartet, Major Liggett dismissed the audience with a word of appreciation upon the part of the veterans. The observance was successful and enjoyable throughout.

CAPT. CHARLES E. REESE AT HOME ONCE MORE.

WON HONORS WITH THIRTIETH REGIMENT.

HE WILL NOT RUN FOR MAYOR

EXPECTS TO RE-ENTER THE MILITARY SERVICE.

After a service of nearly two years under tropic suns with the army in the Philippines, and looking the picture of health, Capt. Charles E.
Reese, late of the Thirtieth United States volunteer infantry, reached Fort Wayne last evening. With him was Mrs. Reese, who joined her husband in the Orient last October. It was known that Captain and Mrs.
Reese were homeward bound, but friends hardly expected them so soon, and their arrival last evening took all by surprise. They were driven at once to the home of Captain Reese's parents, 131 Montgomery street. Both were greatly fatigued with the long journey from San Francisco, and after a brief chat with members of the family they retired.

This morning Captain Reese was besieged upon every hand by friends who desired to join in his welcome home after a service that, though brief as to duration, was arduous and distinguished. Captain Reese was commissioned a captain of volunteers in the Thirtieth regiment in the summer of 1899, and during the organization of the regiment at Fort Sheriden he was made adjutant, the regiment leaving Fort Sheridan in September of that year.

SAW HARD SERVICE.

The Thirtieth was one of the fighting regiments of the Philippine campaign. Until January 4, 1900, it was stationed at Pasay, a few miles south of Manila, and then joined General Schwan's expedition in its dashing raid through the southern portion of Luzon, getting into frequent skirmishes with large bodies of the natives, and pushing on through much hardship with a persistency that could not fail to triumph. Fortunately its losses were comparatively small.

After the raid by General Schwan
the Thirtieth was stationed in the province of Tayabas, and here it remained until the order came to return to the United States. During this time the regiment occupied thirteen different stations, and upon the soldiers devolved the duty of not only fighting the insurgents, but also of clearing the country of the robber bands. This had been completely accomplished before the regiment's return.

GLAD TO GET HOME.

"Yes, we are glad to get home once more," said Captain Reese to a reporter for The Sentinel. "We had intended making a number of stops eastward from San Francisco, but we were with a party of other officers in a special car and I think every one of them was seized with the same desire—to reach home as soon as possible. We made a stop at Salt Lake City, and then hurried onward.

"I am pleased with army life, and expect to enter the regular service,"
Mrs. Reese and I will first spend a month or two getting rested up from the trip. We have both enjoyed excellent health in the Philippines, and I expect some time to go back. I was given an opportunity to take the examination for the regular service at San Francisco, but preferred to make a visit at home and enjoy a brief rest before re-entering the service.

PRETTY LIVELY LIFE.

"I think we had our share of work in Luzon," said he, "but we enjoyed it. I was in ten brushes with the natives, but escaped without a scratch. During the march of General Schwan's column we were into it pretty often, and during the last year, when we were stationed in Tayabas province, we kept continually on the move. This was necessary, both to prevent the gathering of the insurrectos and to drive out the robber bands, which were often worse than the insurrectos. Not a night passed that we did not have men out on scouting expeditions, and they got into some lively tilts with the natives.

Capt. Reese believes the acquisition of the islands was in every way desirable, and he says the resources of the country are simply inexhaustible. "This is the universal feeling among Americans in the Philippines," said the captain, "and I believe the time will come when their importance and desirability will be recognized generally. I would not for one moment favor giving them up.

CONDITIONS IMPROVING.

"I am certain, also, that at least in the province of Tayabas, conditions are improving; the natives are friendly and anxious to adopt our system of government. We established schools at every point possible and found the natives not only intelligent but anxious to learn. When the Thirtieth left the province the natives were sincerely sorry to see us go. They gave an entertainment in our honor, delivering addresses both in Spanish and English. The more educated Filipinos say Aguinaldo's government, if established, would only be a repetition of the bondage under which the islands suffered while dependents of Spain. I look to see the natives become loyal to the United States. There is surely a wonderful future in store for the islands when this is accomplished."

During the past year Captain Reese has been acting as provost judge and as collector of internal revenue at Tayabas, and he has picked up a very fluent command of the Spanish language. Mrs. Reese remained for the greater part of the time at Manila, where her husband made frequent trips on business of the army.
They brought with them an immense collection of curios of every kind.

NO POLITICS FOR HIM.

When The Sentinel asked Captain Reese concerning the rumor that he was to be tendered the republican nomination for mayor, a hearty laugh was the rejoinder.

"I received no telegram advising me of the fact," said he. "I have never considered the matter, and would not do so. I have no desire to enter politics, for I expect to continue in the army."

It is understood that Captain Reese has been most highly recommended for a commission as lieutenant in the regular branch of the service, and it is plainly evident that his plans are to remain in the military service. His appointment as muster officer when the regiment reached San Francisco entailed a great deal of additional labor, and delayed somewhat Captain Reese's return to Fort Wayne.

Privates Storch, Miller and Hake, three other Fort Wayne boys who made honorable records with the Thirtieth regiment, also arrived at home last evening, and are being welcomed by friends today.

SOCIETY PEOPLE WHO USE PERUNA.

MR. TEFFT. JOHNSON AND MISS ABBE JOHNSON, OF WASHINGTON, D. C.

MR. TEFFT. JOHNSON, a well-known society man of Washington, D. C., who played last sesson as leading man in "The Heart of Maryland" company, writes the following letter to Dr. Hartman, of Columbus, O., in which he gives his opinion of the catarrh remedy, Peruna. Mr. Johnson says:

"In all my experiments with medicines in the effort to improve a condition impaired by overwork, I have found nothing that has done so much good as Peruna. As a tonic it is grand.
I take pleasure in recommending it to professional people and to the public generally."

His sister, Miss Abbe Johnson, a talented young actress and society woman, also of Washington, D. C., speaks in the highest terms of Peruna. She says:

"I take pleasure in recommending your Peruna as an excellent remedy. I heartily join with my brother, Mr.
Tefft. Johnson, the leading man in 'The Heart of Maryland,' in testifying to Peruna as a fine tonic. Professional people who are traveling from city to city should not be without Peruna."

The above letters were written from Washington, D. C., Fourteenth and I streets.

Mr. Robert B. Mantell, the great romantic actor, says: "Peruna is refreshing to the nerves and brain. It makes me feel like a new man."

Joplin, Mo., March 25, 1900.

It is with gratitude to you and sympathy for suffering women that I write this. I miscarried September 15th, and flooding followed. Three doctors attended me but did me no good. I had almost given up hope of recovering, when on December 12th, my husband brought home a Ladies' Birthday Almanac, in which I saw a testimonial from a lady afflicted like myself. I immediately got a bottle of Wine of Cardui and commenced taking it. From the first dose it seemed to help me. When I began I could not sit up. Some times I could not raise my head to take a drink without help. The doctors said I would have to undergo an operation as soon as I had strength to stand it. Thanks to Wine of Cardui, I am well without an operation and weigh 123 pounds, which is more than I ever weighed before. I have done all my own work since January 15th.

Mrs. T. H. ELLIOTT.

Hundreds of women are slipping into untimely graves who would be well and happy if some one would induce them to take a bottle of

WINE OF CARDUI

That is the way Mrs. Elliott's life was saved when she suffered miscarriage and her strength was ebbing away on account of the terrible flooding which followed.
The Wine brought her speedy relief and eventually restored her to perfect health. And now she can do all her own work. The doctors could not help Mrs. Elliott. They suggested "operation". Wine of Cardui has completely cured nine out of every ten cases of female troubles arising from disordered menstruation or from the accidents of pregnancy or childbirth. It fits a woman for every duty of life.
No suffering woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.

NEW COMMITTEEMEN MEETDEMOCRATIC CITY COMMITTEE REORGANIZED.

H. C. Underwood Elected Chairman and W. F. Ortleb Secretary— Will Take No Poll.

The new democratic city committee elected last week met last evening at the new quarters in the Arcade and proceeded to organize. There was nearly a full representation, only one ward being missing when the roll was called. Chairman Shambaugh called the committee to order and made a brief address congratulating the party on the choice of so excellent a ticket to be voted for this spring and urging the committeemen to exercise every effort to get out a full vote in their respective wards and roll up such a majority next month as will stand as a model for future committees to pattern after. He then announced that the first business in order was the election of a chairman. H. C. Underwood was placed in nomination and unanimously elected after which Will F. Ortleb was chosen secretary. The chair announced that he would appoint an advisory committee within a day or two, after which matters pertaining to the conduct of the approaching campaign were taken up and discussed; it was decided not to take a poll of the city this spring as the records of the last election are sufficiently near correct for all practical purposes. The personnel of the new committee is as follows:

First ward, Nick Kling and C. Weiler. Second ward, Dr. A. H. McBeth and E. Baltes. Third ward, W. J. Cleary and James Conroy. Fourth ward, Capt. E. B. Smith and Henry Nichter. Fifth ward, O. Snyder and E. Koopman. Sixth ward, H. W. Felts and Fred Fehling. Seventh ward, F. J. Burns and E. C. Reinevald. Eighth ward, E. Wefel and William Ortleb. Tenth ward, Hugo Blumberg and Theodore Kueckuk.

NERVOUS DYSPESPIA.A CURE FOR IT.

Not a Patent Cure-all, Nor a Modern Miracle, But Simply a Rational Cure for Dyspepsia.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no further.

In the face of those absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making any undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than this and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic or nervous dyspepsia, who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it that the facts will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medical properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the overworked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous Dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cts. per package.

They are manufactured by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich. Any druggist will tell you if gives

MR. SANBORN'S RECITAL.

The organ recital last evening at Westminster Presbyterian church by E. Russell Sanborn, organist of Trinity Episcopal church, though not exactly a success in point of attendance, was nevertheless one of the finest entertainments of its kind ever heard in Fort Wayne. The audience, though small, was a representative one and included many of the leading musicians of the city. What was lacking in numbers was made up in enthusiastic applause of Mr. Sanborn's masterful work and he was obliged several times to respond to encores. Mr. Sanborn is a player of remarkable ability and his rendition of several most difficult compositions was beyond criticism. Besides perfect technique Mr. Sanborn possesses great power of interpretation for which the program gave great scope. Owing to a slight imperfection in the operation of the organ, Mr. Sanborn was forced to omit several numbers he had intended giving and the program was necessarily somewhat shorter than was arranged for. The young Bostonian is a musician of unusual attainments and while his reception last night was not what it should have been, it is safe to say that at his next public appearance here his reception will be much more cordial. Mr. Sanborn was assisted by G. Louis Wefel, tenor soloist, who gave two selections in a most acceptable manner and responded to an encore.

Reynold Gazley and Miss Mary Maud Henry were united in marriage at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Henry, 228 East Lewis street. Only a few intimate friends were present, and Rev. Samuel S. Hall, Jr., pastor of the Fort Wayne M. E. circuit, was the officiating clergyman. The groom is an employee of the Fort Wayne Traction company. Mr. and Mrs. Gazley will reside for the present with the bride's parents.

FORMED A CHORUS CHOIR.

A promising chorus choir of nearly fifty mixed voices has just been organized at the Baptist church, and after some preparation will sing at the services there. The choir is, under the direction of Charles Duncan Allen and it promises to be one of the best musical organizations in the city. It will make its first appearance about June 1.

COMES FROM BRAIN.

Phosphates Found on the Skin and Thrown Out From Pores.

We know that active brain work throws out the phosphate of potash, for this product is found on the skin after excessive brain work; therefore, brain workers, in order to keep well, must have proper food containing phosphate of potash to quickly and surely rebuild the used-up tissue. That one can obtain such food has been proven in thousands of cases among users of Grape-Nuts Food.

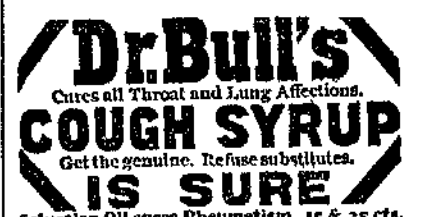

This contains phosphate of potash in minute particles, just as it is furnished by nature in the grains. This product makes from albumen the gray matter that builds the brain and fills the nerve centers.

In no way can this gray matter be made except by the action of phosphate of potash upon albumen, and this mineral should be introduced to the body just as it comes from Nature's laboratory, and not from the drug store. The system is more or less fastidious about taking up the needed elements, and, as might be suspected, it will favor the products of Mother Nature rather than the products of the drug shop, however valuable the last may be for certain uses.

Lawyers, journalists, doctors, ministers, business men and others, who earn their living by the use of the brain, are using Grape-Nuts Food. It is manufactured for a reason and was originated by an expert. The regenerative value of the Food has been demonstrated beyond question.

WOLVENTS ADREN COUNTY.

Several nights ago the family of Mr. Bleke, residing three miles north of the city on the Leo road, was aroused by a terrific struggle in progress in his yard between the family dog and some unknown animal. Mr. Bleke secured his revolver and fired three times at the animal, but failed to hit it, and did not even succeed in stopping the fight between the enraged animals. Mr. Bleke's two sons, armed with a garden rake and a sledge hammer, next took a hand in the matter, and after the rake had been broken in a vain attempt to beat off the intruder, John Bleke succeeded in landing a blow from the hammer, which put an end to the struggle. Then it was discovered that the log had been battling with a wolf.

ie czar has apparently recognized aults in the Russian educational in that have produced such con-and dangerous unrest among university students. In ap-ing General Van Novsky as over of public instruction he tells that this time has come for "an mediate and thorough revision" of system, and that he wishes him undertake the work of "renovaand reorganizing" the schools, need that he "will bring to the
of educating the Russian youth al sympathy and sagacity tip-by experience." General Van ky is said to be a man of great nistrative ability and of liberal and entirely sympathetic to the students. A little "sympand sagacity" seem to be what et needed in this particular dent of Russian administration.

The former graduate of instruction,
M. Bogolypoff, was of the old-fashioned type, believing only in stern repression. He was shot by a student—another illustration of the old definition of the Russian system, despotism tempered by assassination.
The gradual "removal" of a number of these old-timers, giving the czar opportunity to appoint modern men in their stead, will have a distinctly ameliorating influence in Russia.

There is not much left in the Boer republics but the land and the fighting burghers seem determined to defend that to the last. It is difficult to see wherein Lord Kitchener has made any real progress during the past three months in the direction of an end to the war. There are a fair share of British successes, so far as mere occupancy of the enemy's ground is concerned, but the Boers care nothing for that. Their strong play is fighting and flying—a style of campaign so full of harassments
as well as substantial losses for the enemy that it amounts to more than victories in general engagements.

FREE DELIVERY RULES.

Supt. A. W. Machen, of the free delivery bureau of the postoffice department, has issued a circular of instructions governing rural free delivery throughout the country. It directs that petitioners for such service be heads of families, who shall show
the relative population along the route, character of the roads, principal vocations of the people and distances each one now has to travel to receive mail. A map of the route proposed is required.

The petition must be endorsed by either a senator or representative in congress. Each route must be over twenty miles long, serving at least 100 families, and those desiring the delivery must hereafter be prepared to put up suitable boxes. These boxes will be entitled to the protection of the United States statutes.

Rural carriers are not required to deliver ordinary mail to houses standing back from the main road.
They may carry other business than United States mail. Patrons are required to co-operate by keeping the roads up to the standard in all weather. The maximum pay for carriers now is $500 per annum for a full route of approximately five miles traveled on shorter routes.
Carriers are to carry a supply of stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards and must cancel stamps on all letters they collect.

GAVE THEM MORE TIME.

Prospects for a settlement of the Painters' and Paperhangers' strike are not very rosy just now. The masters met last evening in their hall over the Citizen's Trust company offices, but no action was taken toward settling the trouble. The sentiment of the meeting was that inasmuch as the strikers had not officially noticed the proposition made by the contractors a week ago, it was thought the union desired to have more time to consider the matter, so nothing was done. Meetings are held every day by the strikers in their hall at 62 Clinton street, and recruiting committees are out securing additions to the ranks of the union. The Women's Label league adopted resolutions sympathizing with the strikers at their regular meeting last night.

ANOTHER LECTURE COURSE

MANAGERS OF PEOPLE'S COURSE
AGAIN IN THE FIELD.

Will Open October 4 With Lecture
by Dr. Gunsaulus, of Chicago—
No Club League Course.

The series of the People's Lecture Course, which concluded with the lecture by Father Cleary last evening has been most successful and while the gentlemen who are behind the project have not realized anything, all expenses have been cleared. The course was not given with a view of making money, but merely to give the people a high class entertainment at moderate cost and as there were no expenses except the remuneration for the various attractions, it was possible to give the course at very moderate prices. The success of the People's course has been so marked that the promoters have decided to give another series of entertainments
the coming winter and the secretary is concluding arrangements with several prominent lecturers and writers to appear. With a view of still further decreasing the expenses of the course the committee of management has decided not to secure attractions through lyceum bureaus, and a saving of about twenty-five per cent. will thus be effected.

There will be seven attractions in the course and a selection will be made from the following: Booker T. Washington, president of Tuskegee negro college, the foremost negro scholar and writer of this age; Hon. Charles Towne, populist candidate for vice-president; Robert J. Burdette, humorist; Edwin Markham, author of "The Man With the Hoe"; Mrs. M. Wright
Sewall, president of the International Council of Women; Charles Major, author of "When Knighthood was in Flower"; ex-President John P. John, of DePauw university; John Rummell, reader; H. L. Bridgeman, secretary of the Peary Arctic expedition, and associated with him Dr. F. A.
Cook, surgeon of the Belgian Antarctic expedition of '97-'99; Indiana University Glee club; Wm. R. French, director of the Art Institute, of Chicago, and several others. The lectures will begin in the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ and the same plan that prevailed last year will be pursued.

The opening lecture of the course will be delivered on October 4th by Dr. Gunsaulus, pastor of the Central Congregational church of Chicago, successor to Rev. N. Dwight Hillis.

NO CLUB LEAGUE COURSE.

At the last meeting of the executive committee of the Women's Club league, it was definitely decided to abandon the idea of giving another lecture next year. The course this winter was not a success financially, and the league lost about $300. The Club league has aimed to give entertainments of the highest class and the expense incurred in doing so was nearly $1,500. In view of the small attendance at the lectures this winter
it was apparent that public interest was not maintained and on account of the large deficit the ladies did not feel justified in incurring the risk of further financial loss by giving another course.

TALKING MACHINES.

It has constantly been the aim of the manufacturer of the Graphophone to make their product the best that brains could devise and skill could construct. To this end, the most expert experimentalists that the new art has developed have been engaged in the service of the American Graphophone Company, and its factory at Bridgeport, Conn.—by far the largest talking machine plant in the world—is equipped with the most modern and approved machinery, a great deal of it of a special nature, carefully designed and patiently constructed for the particular purposes for which it is employed. The result that most interests the public of such a sagacious business policy is the perfection of the finished product of this company which is offered for sale by the Columbian Phonograph Company. The constant improvement in the Graphophone is not confined to the machines themselves, but extends also to records, blanks and all incidental articles. Columbia reords are the loudest, choicest, smoothest, sweetest and cheapest records obtainable. They are the most brilliant records on the market and are furnished in almost endless variety.

The Columbia Phonograph Co., No.
88 Wabash avenue, Chicago, headquarters for Graphophones and talking machine supplies of every kind,
will send you catalogues on application.

MISS SADIE MONIER DEAD.

It will be sad news to the many friends of Miss Sadie Monier, formerly of this city, to learn of her death which occurred at Allegheny City, Pa., on Saturday. Miss Monier was an estimable Christian young lady, and until a short time ago was teacher of a primary class at the Sunnyside mission Sabbath school. She was a member of Grace Reformed church. Surviving are the parents, three sisters and three brothers, all residing at Allegheny.

THE GLORY OF CITIZENSHIP

TOLD IN ELOQUENT WORDS BY FATHER CLEARY.

Minneapolis Divine Captivates Large
Audience at Library Hall
With Lofly Sentiment.

Liberty and American citizenship were the themes chosen by Rev. James M. Cleary, the eminent Minneapolis Catholic clergyman, in his lecture at Library hall Tuesday evening, and the large audience that sat enthralled beneath the spell of Father Cleary's silvery eloquence were given a new conception of liberty and a more exalted understanding of the glories of American citizenship.

It was the closing number of the Peoples' Lecture course, and from the moment Father Cleary was presented by Rev. John R. Quinlan he had the closest attention of his audience. Conviction and honesty are manifest in every expression, and Father Cleary in upholding the spirit of liberty drew a clear distinction between liberty and license, and pleaded for the respect and observance of the law. He deplored dishonesty and greed, denounced the liquor traffic, and urged the necessity of keeping separate the civil government from the church.

RIGHTS ARE RESPECTED.

Continuing Father Cleary said in part:

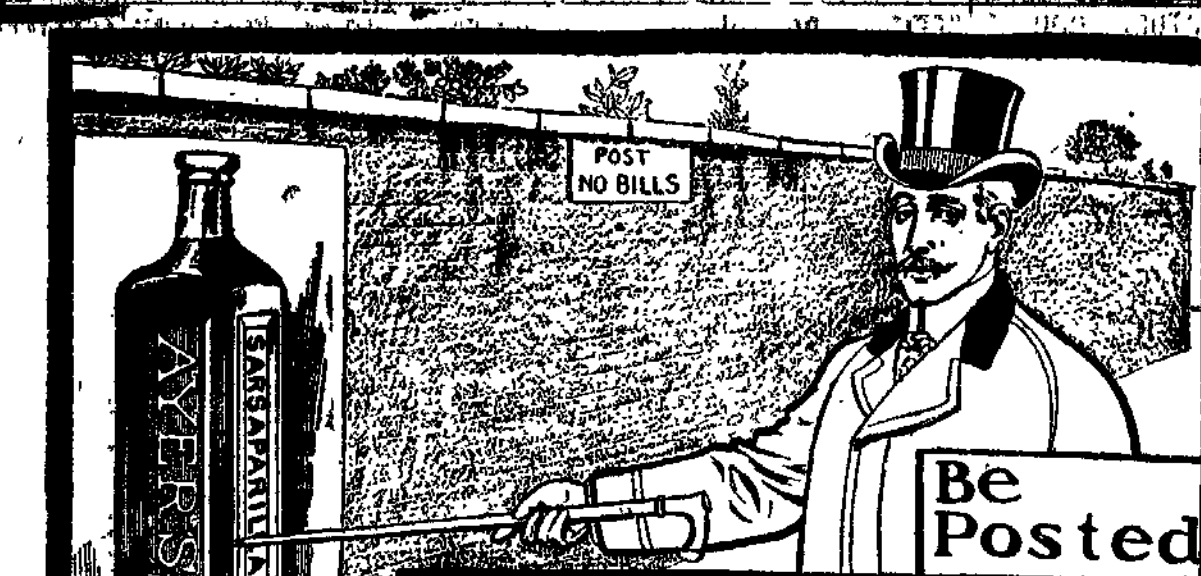

"The rights of the individual are more respected now than ever in the history of civilization. But such rights are built upon manhood, not upon fame, ancestral honor, wealth or so-called social equality. Under this free and liberty loving government, man is entitled to all consideration belonging to a free country. It is not necessary for him to be born under the American flag to deserve those rights. General Shields was born on Irish soil and yet was not afraid to fight for the honor of America, but Benedict Arnold, an American citizen, betrayed this trust imposed in him and played the traitor. No questions which was the better patriot, he who was born on native soil or he who first saw the light in a foreign land. The qualities which tend toward the making of a true, honest and loyal citizen are not the mere accident of birth, but the result of principles of high manhood. It is right to pay deserved tribute to some foreign-born citizens and adjust to sneer at those who come to America and identify themselves with American interests. The word 'toleration' in connection with citizenship is not appropriate. It implies the right to demand and such rights as it implies are God-given rights. No government can give them.

ELEMENTS OF GOVERNMENT.
"There are three elements of free government—authority, liberty and religion, or, to put them in other words, government, the individual, the church. Each should be harmoniously related to the other, so each could pursue its own path without invading the domain of the other. We have the widest liberty consistent with justice, order and law. An American citizen may do as he pleases as long as he does not encroach upon the rights of others, as long as he does right. Such government does not mean allegiance to titled sovereigns, no claim to rule by 'right divine,' no government centering in one particular family where not fitness but accident of birth constituted the claim. When America threw off the yoke of such beliefs and such governments, she said, 'No one rules by might, except God.' The people are not the subjects of government, the government belongs to the people. The highest notion of patriotism is not to serve a king but to serve a country.

WHAT LIBERTY MEANS.

"Liberty does not mean exemption from all restraint or privileges. Every right is to be protected, but to enjoy protection one must have the same regard for the protection of others. Free will acts are bounded by the rights of others. We are like links on a golden chain. If one link is broken the rest must suffer. 'There can be no freedom where there is no obedience to law,' said Abraham Lincoln. This respect for the law, which is another view of liberty, should be extended into an observance of legislative enactments. If such are not practical or become obnoxious, the way to get rid of them is to follow General Grant's idea. He said the way to get rid of a law was to enforce it. If conduct is to be regulated by rules and regulations it is well to have well defined and wise rules. Religion is a necessary force of society. It reaches where no other influence can reach. Loyalty to country is loyalty to God. But it is the work of the church to teach that, not the business of the civil authorities. While religion is necessary as a sustaining force, it too, is as free as the winds of Heaven. No church has the right to expect privileges or rights from the government. That would only serve to bring the church into contempt."

ABOUT THE CITY HALL.

The city council met last night in regular session. Councilman Scheid introduced a resolution asking that the Grand Army of the Department of Indiana, which meets this year at Logansport, come to Fort Wayne next year. Councilman Hensch introduced a similar resolution inviting the national Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen to meet in Fort Wayne in 1903. Both resolutions were unanimously passed. The committee of the whole reported favorably on the franchises of the Maumee Valley Traction company and the Mollhenny Decatur franchise, after substituting the word "failure" for "refused" in a certain section. A numerously signed petition asking that the Pennsylvania railroad company be required to place a watchman at the College street crossing was referred and resolutions providing for the improvement of Lafayette street were passed. The board of health reported that their appropriation is exhausted and asked for a special appropriation for $1,215.88, which, with the recommendation of the committee on health and finance. The report of the board of works on waterworks was referred and ordinances appropriating $2,500 for election expenses and $500 to the bridge account were passed to the third reading.

The committee on street lights will make a third attempt to meet this evening.

The council adjourned to meet next Tuesday night in special session to hear and consider the report of the special water works committee.

The council and city officers will have their pictures taken for display in the council chamber.

Building permits were today issued to Clint E. Wilson, frame house on Hoagland avenue, cost, $1,000; L. F. Curdes, two frame houses on Baker street, cost $3,200; John Suelzer, brick store on Maumee avenue, cost, $1,500; John H. Welch, brick store on Calhoun street, cost, $2,500; Henry Hageman, brick barn on West Berry street, cost, $1,500.

A case of diphtheria was reported this morning from 116 South street and a case of scarlet fever from South Webster street.

The first department was called to St. Joe boulevard this morning, where some burning grass between a couple of houses threatened to do some damage. The fire was extinguished without loss.

A sewer in the alley west of the city hall was reported caved in this morning. The alley was barricaded until the break can be repaired.

(The Farming World.)

Over 50 per cent. of all the sugar manufactured in the world is made from sugar beets.

The difference between cane sugar and beet sugar can be detected only by an expert, and what little difference there is, is in favor of the beet sugar.

You are using beet sugar every day if you use any granulated sugar at all.

Beet sugar is absolutely pure white granulated sugar.

A beet sugar factory cannot manufacture any brown or yellow sugar.

Each man woman and child in the United States consumes on an average 65 pounds of sugar a year.

The inhabitants of the United States spend more money for sugar than they do for wheat flour.

It requires $500,000 to build and equip the average beet sugar refinery.

One ton of wheat per acre is a large yield. Sugar beets often yield twenty tons per acre.

One acre of land planted to sugar beets will yield about one and one-half tons of sugar in a season.

At the present rate of increase in the consumption of sugar in the United States, it will require the building of at least 25 modern beet sugar refineries each year to take care of the increase alone.

The operating season of a sugar refinery is known in the business as "the campaign" and lasts from 100 to 150 days of twenty-four hours each, stopping only in the case of breakdowns or for an occasional clean-up. A 1,000 ton beet sugar refinery in a campaign of 150 days requires as follows: 150,000 tons of beets, 22,000 tons of coal, 2,500 tons of coke, 9,000 tons of limestone, 120,000 barrels or a like capacity in sacks, and miscellaneous material to the value of $15,000. It employs 300 men and pays out $125,000 for salaries and labor. It pays to the farmers $500,000 for sugar beets, and the pulp produced during the campaign is worth in actual value as food for live stock at least $100,000.

At four dollars per ton the farmer can make five times as much per acre from sugar beets as from the average farm crop.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

Suits aggregating $8,200 were filed in the clerk's office this morning against James. Taft. One is by George DeWald & Co., another by J. H. Sweetzer et al. on notes for $1,500, a third by James K. Burnham et al. on account for $5,500, one by the Kalamazoo Corset company for $800 and another by J. J. Hooker for $150. All the papers were drawn by Breen & Morris, who represent a number of creditors.

H. G. Keegan, trustee for the J. F. Schell Investment Co., has commenced suit against the Hamilton National bank for an accounting; demand, $16,046.22.

The county commissioners are today in the country inspecting bridges.

The circuit court jury has been discharged for the term. The February term will close next Saturday and the April term will commence the following Monday.

EXPECT A STRIKE

JERSEY CENTRAL MEN LOOK
FOR A TIE-UP.

ORDER MAY COME ANY TIME

SITUATION PRACTICALLY IN

NOT YET TOO LATE FOR THE
ROAD TO COMPROMISE.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 10.—The employees of the Central Railroad of New Jersey are still in a state of suspense. They say they expect to be called out almost any hour, although it is possible that they may not be called out at all.

The local grievance committee at Ashley, one of the terminal points of the road, say it is now up to the brotherhood chiefs to say whether or not there shall be a strike. It is admitted that it is still within the power of Vice President Warren to avert the threatened trouble, but a delay of twenty-four hours may be too late.

Only the members of the local organization and Chairman Waite, of the grievance committee, know positively the result of yesterday's poll on the strike question. While the employees are unusually reticent, enough can be gleaned from their conversation to justify the statement that they are only waiting for the brotherhood leaders to say quit work.

It is believed that the Jersey Central officials are fortifying themselves against a tie-up, as many men who are known by the employees here to be railroaders, reached this city late last night.

There are also a large number of former employees of the Lehigh Valley railroad in this city. But it is not known whether they would accept positions with the Jersey Central if a strike is ordered.

Nearly all of them were members of the brotherhood at the time of the trouble on the Lehigh Valley.

WHAT CHIEF ARTHUR SAYS.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 10.—Asked if he had received any information today concerning the vote being taken on the Central Railroad of New Jersey in reference to the proposed strike, Grand Chief Morrissey, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said:

"I have heard nothing except through the newspapers. It will likely be several days before the votes are all in and I do not expect any definite information until that work has been completed."

Grand Chief Arthur also stated that he had received no advices bearing on the matter.

CONDITIONS UNCHANGED.

New York, April 10.—It was said at the office of the Central Railroad of New Jersey today that no change had taken place in existing conditions between the employees and officials of the road.

There was a rumor to the effect that an informal meeting might be held today or tomorrow between Vice President Warren and some of the participants in last Saturday's conference, but diligent inquiry failed to confirm this in the slightest degree.

NEWS OF THE DIAMOND

Bar Johnson, of the American league, has ordered exhibition games between clubs of the league stopped. He says it hurts the game and gives wrong impressions concerning the teams.

Indianapolis took the St. Louis leaguers into camp on Monday to the tune of 13 to 7. Harper pitched five innings for the St. Louisians and the Hoosiers could do nothing with his delivery. Later, however, Watty's men made good and won the game.

Dayton has released Moore to Toledo. Strobel was in need of a left-hand pitcher and Armour having more than he needed accommodated the mustachioed gentleman from down the creek.

Fort Wayne people are hard losers and lament the securing by the local team of the battery of Ames and Fox. "Fox we could have spared, although he is a great catcher," says one writer, "but Pitcher Ames we wanted and wanted badly."—Grand Rapids Press.

It comes in bad form for Grand Rapids to talk about hard losers. When a man considered to be a dead game sport, like Deacon Ellis, does a rank baby act and threatens to lie down and quit unless he can have his way, as he did in the Ames-Fox case, hard losers can not be considered in the same week. A hard loser has ten to one the best of a "welcher."

Dayton is so happy it can't control its enthusiasm on account of trimming the Buffaloes two games. The easterners say they did not work their pitcher to win the games and their fielding was something wretched.

Columbus thinks it has found a treasure in George Baistow, of last year's St. Joseph's team, who will play second base. He fielded .947 for 108 games last year and batted .261. He was signed yesterday morning.

Notre Dame has declared all next week's games off. The manager claims he can not get his men into condition by that time.

Billy Rhines has signed with Grand Rapids. Billy was a star in his day and refuses to believe that he is a has-been. Perhaps he is not, but after a man plays on the bench for a season or two he is usually surprised at the number of live ones that have grown up in that short time. Billy is very popular everywhere and may show them all while he gets off at.

Columbus has fifteen players signed, and these have been ordered to report in the capital city by the latter part of this week.

Dayton trimmed Buffalo to the queen's taste at the game Monday. The Vets piled up 18 runs to the Buffalo's 5, and made 23 hits off the Pan-American aggregation of pitchers.

Fred Valdoise has signed with Ellis, of Grand Rapids, and will probably cover short this year.

Watkins agreed with Mautner that if he would placate Ellis by making him a present of Fox and Ames he would secure an A-1 catcher for him. It is still up to Watty to make good.

The ball club of the University of Michigan will pass through here tomorrow on their way to Champaign, Ill., where they are scheduled for a series with the University of Illinois.

Catcher William Bergen may again wear a Fort Wayne uniform, if the following from the Indianapolis News is correct:

"Catcher Bergen, who was drafted by the Cincinnati team last fall from Fort Wayne, has been turned over to Indianapolis. Manager Watkins has promised President Mautner, of Fort Wayne, a catcher and will either return Bergen or send him one of the new men now with Indianapolis. Bergen, who is a brother of Martin Bergen, the former well-known Boston catcher, made an excellent record in the Inter-State league last season."

This is the day set for all Fort Wayne players to report. They are coming in very slowly and so far Hankey, Lamont, Mullen, Vickers and Quinn are the only ones who have shown up.

Manager Miller has formulated a set of rules for the government of the Fort Wayne players. The rules are not obnoxiously rigid and are just strong enough to preserve good order and good discipline. Being comparatively lenient they will be enforced to the letter.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

Charles Schoopman whose escapee at the home of Mrs. Mosshamer was detailed yesterday has not yet been arrested. This morning an effort was being made to settle the matter without prosecution.

Fish Commissioner Fleming has been in the city for over a week and as a result of his visit, which has been kept quiet, a number of nets and other contraband fishing utensils have been confiscated. Arrests will follow in a day or two and Justice France will hear the cases.

Trades Council Fair tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gecke entertained very pleasantly at progressive peders Monday evening at their home on East Wayne street. First prizes were won by Edward Rosenberger and Mrs. Charles Tripple, and the second awards were made to Albert Adams and Mrs. John Schuler. A three-course lunch was served at midnight.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, April 10.—A rush of selling orders caused a weak opening in the wheat market today. May sold from 70c to 69½c, compared with yesterday's close at 70c. Late cables were stronger than expected and this market rallied sharply to 70½c. Rain was reported in the southwest, where it is most needed. Local receipts were 37 cars, none of contract grade, while Minneapolis and Duluth reported 175 cars against 431 last week and 310 a year ago.

On reports of an export demand touched 70½c, but reacted to 70½c, closing steady ½¢ higher at 70½¢@70½¢.

Continued good weather and indications of somewhat firmer country offerings produced weakness in corn at the opening. May began a shade higher to ½¢ lower at 44c to 43½c under heavy selling. The market touched 43½c and rallied to 43½c on buying by the bull leaders. Receipts were 150 cars, 35 of contract grade.

The close was steady, May ½¢ lower at 43½¢@43½¢.

Scrofula

THE OFFSPRING OF HEREDITARY BLOOD TAIN.

Scrofula is but a modified form of Blood Poison and Consumption. The parent virus is latent by either will see in the child the same disease manifesting itself in the form of swollen glands of the neck and throat, catarrh, weak eyes, offensive sores and abscesses and of testicles white swelling—sure signs of Scrofula. There may be no external signs for a long time, for the disease develops slowly in some cases, but the poison is in the blood and will break out at the first favorable opportunity. S. S. S. cures this wasting, destructive disease by first purifying and building up the blood and stimulating and invigorating the whole system.

J. M. Seal, 115 Public Square, Nashville, Tenn., says: "Ten years ago my daughter fell and cut her forehead. From this wound the glands on the side of her face became swollen and burst. Some of the best doctors here and elsewhere attended her without any benefit. We decided to try S. S. S., and a few bottles cured her entirely."

SSS makes new and pure blood to nourish and strengthen the body, and is a positive and safe cure for Scrofula. It overcomes all forms of blood poison, whether inherited or acquired, and no remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood. If you have any blood trouble, or your child has inherited some blood taint, take S. S. S. and get the blood in good condition and prevent the disease doing further damage.

NAMED THE ROAD

THE NEW LINE CALLED THE
FORT WAYNE AND DETROIT.

INVITED TO COME HERE

CITY COUNCIL ADDRESSES B. OF
R. T. MEN.

NEWS OF THE SHOP AND RAIL

AN OLD DISPATCHER PREPAR-ING TO RETIRE.

Local officials of the Wabash received notice from the general offices this morning that the proposed connecting line from New Haven to Butler would be part of a division to be known thereafter as the Fort Wayne and Detroit road. The Montpelier extension, now under construction, will become a part of the Toledo and Chicago road. As stated in The Sentinel several days ago, the material for the Fort Wayne and Detroit road has been purchased and construction would be crowded to completion so that trains can be running by midsummer. On that score there is nothing to add today.

OLD DISPATCHER TO RETIRE.

April 20 J. H. McEvoy will retire from the position of train dispatcher in the Grand Rapids and Indiana offices to assume a less arduous position in the telegraph department of the road at Kalamazoo, Mich. This move was decided upon several days ago, when Mr. McEvoy went to Supt. J. W. Hunter with the request that the change be made. He has worked steadily for several years and the confinement has injured his health, and it is on this account that Mr. McEvoy has sought an easier position. Mrs. McEvoy and some of the children went to Kalamazoo yesterday to prepare for the move there and Mr. McEvoy will go as soon as he can be released from his duties here. Kalamazoo is the old home of the family. Mr. McEvoy has been a train dispatcher over thirty years and in all that time no wreck or accident which could be laid at his door occurred. This is a record that few train dispatchers can exhibit. He began railroading as a messenger boy on the Michigan Central in 1863. He soon became an operator. In 1870, when he was only 19 years old, he was made a dispatcher by the Michigan Central officers and continued in the service of that company in that capacity up to 1875. That year he came to Fort Wayne and took a similar position with the Wabash company. In 1881 the Wabash offices were removed to Peru and Mr. McEvoy went there also and became chief dispatcher, a position he held nine years. In 1890 he returned to Fort Wayne and took his present position.

INVITATION TO THE B. OF R. T.

The city council did the proper thing last night when it unanimously passed Councilman Hensch's resolution that an invitation be given to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen to hold their 1903 convention in this city. A copy of the resolution will be given to C. A. Scott, who will represent the local brotherhood at the Milwaukee convention in May, and by him be laid before the convention in a manner that will undoubtedly have a great influence and possibly result in the convention coming here two years hence. In the council proceedings, printed in another column of today's Sentinel, will be found the resolution in full.

'T WAS A GRAND SUCCESS.

Like all its predecessors, the annual ball of the local lodge of the Order of Railway Conductors, given at the Elektron hall last night, was a brilliant success, viewed both in a financial and social way. In fact, it was even more of a success than former balls, because the conductors had the assistance this time of the Ladies' auxiliary, without which they would not have been able to have made the refreshment feature the notable success it proved to be last night. Both halls were used, the G. A. R. room

BLOOD

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health. When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

for dancing and the west and smaller room for the banquet, for pedro playing and as a retreat for the dancers between numbers. Nearly 800 tickets had been sold and it is believed that nearly every one of them was used, so great was the attendance. The pedro games were unusually interesting. The ladies' prizes were carried off by Mrs. Munfer and Miss Maggie Sullivan in the order named, and the gentlemen's prizes went to A. W. Caskey and Frank Greer in the order named. After the games came the banquet. The dance closed with a ladies' prize waltz, which was awarded to Miss Kieley. The committees to whom is due a great portion of the credit for the success of the affair were composed of the following ladies and gentlemen:

Arrangements—Mrs. William Kitzelman, Mrs. George W. P. Bonter, Mrs. C. M. Bushey, Mrs. J. C. Craig, Mrs. J. M. Wells, George W. P. Bonter, T. P. McArdle, A. J. Dawson, C. M. Bushey, M. O. Ginty.

Reception—Mr. and Mrs. Gard Tuckey, Mr. and Mrs. Warrenburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. Watterson, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kanaga, Mrs. J. P. Morgan, Mrs. H. Stoncifer, O. Owens and A. G. Estey.

Conductor J. P. Morgan, of the

Pittsburg, was floor manager, assisted by Messrs. A. J. Dawson, Thomas Coleman, F. I. Stump, H. Stoncifer, Fred Deahl and T. P. McArdle.

JAMEY, THE MIGHTY HUNTER.

Engineer Emil Jamey, of the Pittsburg, has been immortalized and the pen of the bard of the Pittsburg, Operator G. W. Applegate, did it. The following poem tells the story so well that further comment is unnecessary:

JAMEY'S DREAM.
The "sign" was in the "blue bill,"
There were "Mallards" in the air,
And our "dead-shot" Mr. Jamey
Was hoping to bag a pair.

The ducks were sailing through the breeze,
And the geese were quacking loud,
While our "dead-shot" Mr. Jamey
With his shot-gun felt so proud.

As he traveled o'er the marshes broad,
He could hear the shot-gun pound,
And to him there came a vision
Of the happy hunting ground.

The place where all good hunters go,
When their race of life is run,
And our "dead-shot" Mr. Jamey said,
"Thank the Lord I own a gun."

In the vision grand he saw a throne,
And upon it sat our "Bear Creek Bill,"
Shooting mallards, geese and pin tails,
To please his sovereign will.

Bill then arose upon his throne,
And said while the bells did chime,
"O' my brothers of the shotgun order, Shoot ducks till the end of time."

—G. W. Applegate.

laughing ducks at Hanna in the last days of March, 1901.)

TWO UNFORTUNATE SHOPMEN.

There were two accidents among Pittsburg shopmen yesterday, neither being very serious. F. E. Walda, a carpenter, was engaged in making some repairs at the coal docks, when he had one of his fingers mashed in some manner. W. P. O'Brien, a machinist, had two or three fingers pinched and skinned last evening in a painful manner, but none of the bones were broken. Both men will be unable to work for a few days.

SOLDIERS PASS THROUGH CITY.

Three hundred and fifty members of the Eleventh United States Infantry passed through the city today en route to the Philippines. They traveled from Buffalo to Chicago over the Nickel Plate, and stopped a half-hour here for dinner. There were two trains, the first being made up of baggage cars and a sleeper, the latter occupied by the officers and their wives. The second train was composed entirely of sleepers. The first train was in charge of Conductor C. W. Zeigler, was brought in here by engine 15, with Engineer Daniel McFee at the throttle, and taken to Chicago by engine 171, with Engineer M. F. McCarthy at the throttle. The second train was in charge of Conductor George Harsh, brought in by engine 12, with Jesse Lynch at the throttle; taken to Chicago by engine 91, with Engineer Frank P. Sleeper at the throttle.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Michael J. Murphy and C. Starke, Pittsburg shopmen, are sick. Casper Lehmkueller, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, is sick and off duty.

J. Weber, who was sick a month, resumed work in the Pittsburg round house this morning. Earl Repine, a Pittsburg switchman, is taking a lay off to attend to some private affairs. Engineer C. A. Prince, of the Pittsburg, is off duty on account of a sprained shoulder.

After a two months' lay off, Conductor B. F. Howley has returned to his duties on the Pittsburg road. John H. Fisher, the veteran Pittsburg shopman, is in Pittsburg upon a special mission for the company. W. E. Paul, of the Pittsburg planing mills, has gone to Hamlet, Ind., to attend the wedding of a relative.

After a two weeks' tussle with the grip, F. J. Ruch was able to report for duty at the Pittsburg corner shop this morning.

Pittsburg Fireman VanFerson is sick and off duty. Fireman L. M. Kyler is off duty on account of private business.

B. E. D. Stafford, general salesman for the Ewald Iron company, of St. Louis, was in the city today, calling upon his customers.

Ed Eist and P. Moley, boilermakers at the Wabash shops, are at work again, after a few days' visit with friends in Indianapolis.

A. J. Huber, of the Pittsburg planing mills, and his sister, went to Delphos, Ohio, this morning, to attend the funeral of a relative.

A. Bowman, Peter Neumann and Peter Sachreiter are new employees at the Pittsburg round house, commencing work there this morning.

M. H. Durnell and Rodney Ellenwood, Pittsburg engineers, are looking after private business and have taken a lay off for that purpose.

Conductor Long took out Pennsylvania train No. 37 this morning, vice Conductor J. P. Morgan, who is taking a lay off for private business.

When completed, work on the western division of the Baltimore and Ohio, now in progress, will shorten the route between Pittsburg and Chicago six miles.

Brakeman Campbell, formerly of the Michigan Southern, has taken a position on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road and will have headquarters in this city.

Yesterday Engineer J. A. Keplinger celebrated his sixty-third birthday anniversary and today he is nursing an ulcerated tooth. Otherwise he is a most hearty and active man.

C. C. Casterline, of the Pittsburg shops, is still off duty. He is afflicted with boils, a large one having located upon his left arm, near the elbow, and making a sling for the limb necessary.

John Rhinasmith, of the firm of Rhinasmith & Simonson, who has been in California several months, is now on his way home. He left Los Angeles on the 5th inst., and is due here some time this week.

E. M. Hall, Grand Rapids and Indiana brakeman, who has been disabled for freight service several months by a lame arm, is now on the extra passenger list, the approaching excursion season making an opening in that line.

William J. Neizer, the well known tinner at the Pittsburg shops, is out after a confinement on account of a severe attack of the grip, which came near developing pneumonia. He is still suffering from the effects of the illness and will probably not be able to work before next week.

Cornelius Deneshy, notice of whose approaching marriage was made in The Sentinel a few days ago, is taking a lay off to prepare for the event. The wedding will take place at St. Peter's church, on the 18th, and will be followed by a honeymoon at Galion, the home of the bride's relatives.

Jule Henry, a truck builder at the Pittsburg shops, is having more than a fair share of misfortune at present. His wife and all of his children are sick, some of them with scarlet fever, and in consequence Mr. Henry is quarantined and deprived of the privilege of earning money just at a time when his expenses are at the maximum point. None of the sick ones are considered in a dangerous condition.

Pittsburg trainmen were grieved this morning to hear of the misfortunes of Charles Taylor, a baggage-master on the road, running between Crestline and Chicago. His little daughter, who, since the death of Mrs. Taylor, has been making her home with a relative in LaPorte, died in that city last night. The little one

Old at 30, Young at 70.

Age comes when the vitality is gone. Some are old at twenty, some are young at seventy. It's whenever the nerves wear out—you feel old when hands and limbs tremble—memory poor—temples throb—heart flutters—muscles twitch—brain fagged out—irritable—frequent headaches—sleeplessness—morning languor—mind clouded. The period is reached when nature must have assistance; it will not recruit itself—the nerves have lost their force, their strength, their system influence. This is the time when days number as years in showing age. You feel it—you look it. There is one way only to escape from this decline—rebuild nerve waste and renew the blood, and that is the secret of the surprising cures made by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—marvelous in supplying Nerve Force. They find youth for weak and despondent people.

FOUND YOUTH AGAIN.

Mr. Levi Bromley of Norway, N. Y., writes: "For several years past I have found myself gradually failing in health. My nerves were very weak and my blood thin and cold, it seemed almost impossible to keep warm. I tried many different remedies, but without any permanent benefit until I began taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills. The first box I took helped me and now after taking nearly five boxes, I feel almost youthful again so wonderfully beneficial has been their effect on my blood and nerves."

was four years old and a few days ago was said to be ill with scarlet fever. It is presumed that death was caused by that disease.

Albert Black, of Albion, was in the city yesterday and called at the electric works to see his old friends. Mr. Black was once employed in that establishment and is pretty well acquainted with the present force.

Mr. Mossman, of Mossman, Yarnelle & Co., escorted a number of Columbia City business men about the city this morning. They called at the electric works and were greatly interested in what they saw there.

Ed Shorb, who formerly ran a railway restaurant at Warsaw and was known to all the Pittsburg trainmen, is in a bad way physically. Two months ago a dentist in pulling one of Mr. Shorb's teeth fractured the jawbone and the patient has been a great sufferer ever since.

Conductor J. Shepler, of the Pittsburg, was injured at Arcola yesterday, while out on his run on the Pittsburg. The accident was not serious and he was able to continue the run to Chicago. This morning, however, the wound became so sore that Mr. Shepler concluded to "dead-head" home and take a lay off for a few days.

W. B. Stuart, chief engineer of the Santa Fe company, announces that the proposed improvements of the Santa Fe shops at Topeka will cost $1,000,000. At the election last week in Topeka the proposition to vote $70,000 in bonds to aid in the purchase of the land for the new improvements was carried in the city by an overwhelming vote.

Supt. J. W. Hunter, M. L. Jones and E. H. McDonald went to Rome City this morning to see what improvements can be made with the funds available for that purpose. The Sentinel mentioned a number of improvements wanted several days ago and today's visit of the gentlemen named will decide how near those wants are to be supplied.

The roads in the Northwestern Passenger association have determined that bicycles are vehicles and not baggage, consequently no bicycles will be checked free of charge hereafter, but the usual excess baggage rates will be charged, estimating the weight of an ordinary wheel at fifty pounds and tandems at 100 pounds. Some of the eastern states have passed a law compelling railroads to check bicycles as baggage free of cost.

While in the act of disconnecting a steam hose in the Wabash round house yesterday afternoon, John Laier was severely injured. The hose came loose unexpectedly and flew around, giving him a terrific blow on the side of the neck. He was prostrated by the blow and rendered helpless for awhile. Mr. Laier was conveyed to his home, on South Hanna street, where Dr. M. F. Porter attended him. Mr. Laier is an apprentice in the shops.

Mothers, be sure and use Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for your children while cutting teeth. It is the best remedy of all. maySeed&w

GOLD BARS TAKEN

KAISER WILHELM.

TREASURE WAS IN TRANSIT

LOOTED.

MANNER OF THE ROBBERY IS NOT KNOWN.

New York, April 10.—The robbery at sea of the specie room of the North German Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse seems a mysterious crime. Apparently there has been complete failure to locate either the missing gold bullion or the men who took it although the search of passengers and ship at Bremen again this morning may furnish material for the investigation. Three bars of gold, aggregating in value $22,750, shipped by the National City bank of New York, were stolen from cask No. 4, of the specie room, somewhere between this port and Cherbourg. The advice to Oelrichs & Co., agents of the company, came in German, and on the point as to whether the specie room was broken open or entered by beating the lock admits of translation either way.

The specie room of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse is iron bound and almost as strong as a vault. Its door was secured by a patent lock, for which there were but two keys. One of the keys was kept by the chief officer, the other by the purser.

The bars of gold were packed in oak casks bound with iron hoops. Thousands of dollars in gold were within the reach of the man who forced his way in the strong room, but only the sum named was taken.

At the office of the North German Lloyd agents this morning the following statement was given to the Associated Press:

"Three bars of gold value at $22,750 were taken from the specie room of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse somewhere between here and Cherbourg. The bars were taken from cask four, but we have no idea as to how the robbery was accomplished. Our advice are brief and do not show how the room was entered. The gold was shipped by the National City bank of New York. We understand it was insured, but the question of responsibility will be passed upon later. The ship is due at Bremen today and we may hear further from there. We have not received the gold and this office has no knowledge of the thieves. The specie room is a strong safe one, secured by patent lock, to which there were but two keys. The chief officer kept one key, the purser the other. We will make every possible effort to recover the money and catch the thieves."

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED.

Bremen Haven, April 10.—It is officially announced that two bars of gold were stolen during the voyage of the North German Lloyd's steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which left New York April 2 and arrived at Cherbourg April 9. The company has offered a reward of 10,000 marks for their restoration or for the discovery of the thieves.

STOLEN ON THE VESSEL.

London, April 10.—The offer of a reward for the return of the gold stolen from the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse or for the discovery of the thieves appears to effectually dispose of the theory first advanced that the bars were stolen previous to having been sent on board the steamer. No clues, however, seem to be forthcoming regarding the perpetrator of the robbery. Passengers of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse who were landed at Southampton told a representative of the Associated Press that they knew nothing of the matter until they read of it in the newspapers this morning. It was observed that there were no special precautions or searchings of the passengers disembarked, though there was some comment caused by the delay of seven hours in landing the passengers at Cherbourg, where the steamer arrived at 11 o'clock Monday night. But, contrary to custom, the passengers were kept on board until 6 o'clock in the morning. The officers of the steamer explained that the steamer would not come out. But this failed to satisfy the impatient passengers, who, however, were quite ignorant until they landed that their detention was due to the

Unless unforeseen contingencies arise to change present plans, the handsome new city high school building to be erected during the coming year will be erected upon a portion of the grounds of the old Hamilton homestead, with frontage on East Lewis, Barr and Montgomery streets. Ever since it became apparent that there would be no difficulty in securing the passage of the law authorizing the issuing of bonds for a new high school and manual training school building for this city the school board has been searching for desirable sites for the structure. While this task was by no means an easy one, the board has finally settled upon the Hamilton tract as being in all respects the most desirable. Miss Margaret Hamilton, the owner of the property, has given the school board an option upon the eastern portion of the property, a tract of 150 feet in width and 320 in length. A CENTRAL LOCATION. The site selected is said to be very near the geographical center of the city, and members of the board are assured that the selection will be very generally acceptable to the people of the city. There will be a frontage of 150 feet on East Lewis and on Montgomery streets, while lengthwise the site runs for 320 feet along the western side of Barr street. The surroundings are in every way desirable for school purposes, it is far enough removed from the main business streets to avoid the noise of traffic, yet not too remote to be easily accessible. The view from every side of the building will be pleasing, and the tract is surrounded by many fine old trees. Many of these will, of course, have to be removed, but the conditions are such as will produce a location of great beauty.

TRUSTEES' CALL.

Realize the Benefits of Mr.

Carnegie's Gift.

What's the matter with the school trustees? That question is being numerously asked.

It is over a week now since the last letter was received from Mr. Carnegie, stating that $75,000 for the erection of a public library building is at the disposal of the proper authorities at any time, at the office of Mr. Carnegie's cashier at Pittsburgh. Every move made by the city for securing the donation was met promptly by Mr. Carnegie in a brief and business like way and it is now, as it has been for a week, up to the school trustees to act. In an interview with a member of the board a week ago, he said that the matter would be discussed at the regular meeting of the board, which was to have been held last Monday night. It was at the time suggested that the city should act as promptly as Mr. Carnegie did, and that the board might call a special meeting to formulate plans and decide upon a course of action, but the idea was not considered and it was said that there would be plenty of time to discuss the matter at the regular meeting. The Sentinel has it upon good authority that the board for some reason did not have a meeting at all on Monday, but had one last evening, and that the library matter was not even taken up. The public feels that it is entitled to know the occasion for this apparently needless delay. The building season is at hand, the site is already procured and the money is ready. It is not understood why the trustees should not make at least a preliminary move in the direction of acquiring the benefit from Mr. Carnegie's magnificent generosity.

It has been suggested that a committee should be selected to go to Pittsburgh, look over plans, consult with and receive suggestions from Mr. Carnegie's managers, and that such a committee could easily be selected and without cost to the city or the board. A member or two from the Woman's Club league, the instigators of the movement; the board of school trustees, delegates from the city department, a delegate or two from the Commercial club and perhaps one or two other public spirited citizens, including an architect, have been suggested as a suitable and representative body of citizens to take the preliminary steps.

NATIVE CONVERTS KILLED

BIBLE SOCIETY.

New York, April 10.—The annual report of the American Bible society relative to the situation in China, will contain the following interesting statements from its agent in China, the Rev. John B. Hykes, D. D.: "There was a deep and cunningly laid plot, under imperial sanction, to exterminate Christians, expel all foreigners and destroy all foreign interests. No one divined the full extent of the iniquity which was deliberately contemplated. In all 183 protestant missionaries, including 80 men, 75 women and 43 children have been massacred. "With the exception of the massacres at Ku Choo in Chikiang, in which eleven persons were killed, and at Hengchoo in Hunan, all of the deaths occurred in the northern provinces. "The question has been raised at home as to whether the boxer uprising was anti-foreign or anti-missionary in its character. No doubt exists in the mind of any well-informed person in China. The movement was undoubtedly against foreigners, as such; and the crusade was directed against everything foreign—Christianity, of course, included. "ALTERED DEATH DECREE. Hsu Ching Cheng and Yuen Chang, two ministers of the foreign office would not transmit the awful edict which reiterated the order to 'painfully' extirpate all foreigners, but changed it so as to read 'protect all foreigners' and then sent it flying over the wires to the remotest provinces. They were sentenced to be cut in two. Missionaries were the class that benefitted by these acts of heroism. The fact that every missionary escaped from fourteen out of the eighteen provinces would indicate that the crusade was not specially anti-missionary. "In the provinces of Chih Li and Shansi every school, hospital, chapel and dwelling was looted and burned by the boxers or imperial troops, the only exception being the property in the foreign settlement at Tien Tsin. So complete was the demolition of property by these mad fanatics that not a vestige was left to mark the site; even the foundations were dug up and carried away. There was also destruction of mission property in the provinces of Shensi, Hoonan, Hunan, Huoh, Kiangsi, Chekiang and Kwantung. The native Christians have been the worst sufferers. Those who escaped the general slaughter in the northern provinces lost absolutely everything, and many of them are perishing from cold and starvation. "SCRIPTURES DESTROYED. "The scriptures destroyed will aggregate not less than one hundred thousand volumes and the actual loss to the society will not be less than eight or ten thousand gold dollars, including the necessary expense of getting workers to places of safety and back again to their stations. All of our foreign superintendents were saved. We have to mourn the loss of many noble and devoted native workers. They were warned of the risk they were running, but not a man of the noble band of eighteen fled. Their reply was, 'We go on a colporteur tour. God will be done.' "Only four of the eighteen returned from that journey. The homes of these martyrs were looted and burned and their families exterminated. "Those who survived escaped to the mountains, where they suffered terrible privations and managed to get back to Peking after it was captured by the allied armies. "NOT ONE ESCAPED. "Of the colporteurs under missionary supervision I have not heard of one who escaped. In some parts of China colporteurs endured terrible persecution and some of them are only now venturing out of hiding. "More than forty thousand native converts (including Roman Catholics) met death with a heroism worthy of the best age of the church. "While the total number of the volumes of the scriptures published is 37,000 less than the previous year, the number of pages is slightly in

The situation at the city hall with regard to the police commissioners is absolutely unchanged. Mr. Trentman returned from Pittsburgh last night and this morning had a brief and informal talk with Mr. Geake and Mr. Bash, but they decided upon nothing and have not even engaged counsel, although J. B. Harper is looking up some points of law for them. Mr. Trentman left this afternoon for Hartford City and may not return before Friday, and there is to be nothing done until his return. Mr. Bash could not be seen today, he having gone to the country, but will return this evening. No letter has yet been received from the attorney general, or if there has, it has not been made public. From the tenor of a dispatch from the attorney general, advising the commissioners to engage local counsel, it looks very much as though the authorities at Indianapolis consider that having made the appointments, it is up to the appointees to do the rest, and they wash their hands of the whole matter.

FIRE IN INSANE HOSPITAL.

Indianapolis, April 10.—Fire, which broke out at 3 a. m. in the women's building of the insane hospital at Mount Jackson, just west of the city limits, was brought under control before serious property damage was done. Great difficulty was experienced in controlling the patients of the two wards and getting them to a place of safety. This was accomplished by the female nurses, who displayed rare heroism. Two nurses—Margaret Walkman and Kate Nolan—were severely scorched, but none of the patients was injured. Property loss nominal.

NEWS IN POLICE CIRCLES.

John W. Knowball was the only candidate at police court this morning, and he claimed to be a novice. A deep milky way of penitence and he expressed all kinds of regret at the unfortunate vigilance of the arresting officer. Mr. Knowball was carting around a ponderous jag in a buggy. He insisted on driving on the sidewalk and otherwise infracting the rules and usages of refined society. The mayor told him that the next time he got drunk and the horse was sober he should throw the lines over the dashboard and trust to providence and let him go.

Chicken thieves have been reported in the vicinity of Lafayette and Pontiac streets.

Grocer Hermsdorfer, of West Jefferson street, reported to the police that a boy who was working for him had disappeared, carrying with him the key to the store, looking the proprietor out. The police promised to look for the boy and meantime advised Mr. Hermsdorfer to unlock his door with an ax.

A runaway horse, found to be the property of a Mrs. Nichtenhausen, was captured by the police last night and stabled at the Draker barn on Pearl street. Subsequently the owner of the horse put in an appearance and claimed the outfit.

An old lady, badly crippled, giving her name as Mrs. Woodburn and her home as Angola, was left at the Lake Shore hotel last evening by parties named Daly. They were expected to return but failed to show up. The old lady said that she was brought to town to sign some papers whereby the Dalys could get some money belonging to her and she could not understand why she should be abandoned. Persons who conversed with the lady are of the opinion that she is slightly demented. Meantime the humane officer is investigating the case.

FIRE ON A TRANSPORT.

New York, April 10.—Fire was discovered in the second hold of the transport Rawlins early today. A quantity of hay was stored in the hold and the firemen endeavored to confine the flames to the one part of the vessel. The Rawlins was at the government pier, Brooklyn, and was to have sailed for Cuba this afternoon. The damage to the transport is estimated at $30,000 and to the cargo at $80,000.

The local union of cigarmakers will turn out on a body tonight for the labor parade which is to inaugurate the Trades and Labor council fair in the Saengerbund building.

NATIVE CONVERTS KILLED

ANNUAL REPORT OF AMERICAN
BIBLE SOCIETY.

New York, April 10.—The annual report of the American Bible society relative to the situation in China, will contain the following interesting statements from its agent in China, the Rev. John B. Hykes, D. D.: "There was a deep and cunningly laid plot, under imperial sanction, to exterminate Christians, expel all foreigners and destroy all foreign interests. No one divined the full extent of the iniquity which was deliberately contemplated. In all 183 protestant missionaries, including 80 men, 75 women and 43 children have been massacred. "With the exception of the massacres at Ku Choo in Chikiang, in which eleven persons were killed, and at Hengchoo in Hunan, all of the deaths occurred in the northern provinces. "The question has been raised at home as to whether the boxer uprising was anti-foreign or anti-missionary in its character. No doubt exists in the mind of any well-informed person in China. The movement was undoubtedly against foreigners, as such; and the crusade was directed against everything foreign—Christianity, of course, included. "ALTERED DEATH DECREE. Hsu Ching Cheng and Yuen Chang, two ministers of the foreign office would not transmit the awful edict which reiterated the order to 'painfully' extirpate all foreigners, but changed it so as to read 'protect all foreigners' and then sent it flying over the wires to the remotest provinces. They were sentenced to be cut in two. Missionaries were the class that benefitted by these acts of heroism. The fact that every missionary escaped from fourteen out of the eighteen provinces would indicate that the crusade was not specially anti-missionary. "In the provinces of Chih Li and Shansi every school, hospital, chapel and dwelling was looted and burned by the boxers or imperial troops, the only exception being the property in the foreign settlement at Tien Tsin. So complete was the demolition of property by these mad fanatics that not a vestige was left to mark the site; even the foundations were dug up and carried away. There was also destruction of mission property in the provinces of Shensi, Hoonan, Hunan, Huoh, Kiangsi, Chekiang and Kwantung. The native Christians have been the worst sufferers. Those who escaped the general slaughter in the northern provinces lost absolutely everything, and many of them are perishing from cold and starvation. "SCRIPTURES DESTROYED. "The scriptures destroyed will aggregate not less than one hundred thousand volumes and the actual loss to the society will not be less than eight or ten thousand gold dollars, including the necessary expense of getting workers to places of safety and back again to their stations. All of our foreign superintendents were saved. We have to mourn the loss of many noble and devoted native workers. They were warned of the risk they were running, but not a man of the noble band of eighteen fled. Their reply was, 'We go on a colporteur tour. God will be done.' "Only four of the eighteen returned from that journey. The homes of these martyrs were looted and burned and their families exterminated. "Those who survived escaped to the mountains, where they suffered terrible privations and managed to get back to Peking after it was captured by the allied armies. "NOT ONE ESCAPED. "Of the colporteurs under missionary supervision I have not heard of one who escaped. In some parts of China colporteurs endured terrible persecution and some of them are only now venturing out of hiding. "More than forty thousand native converts (including Roman Catholics) met death with a heroism worthy of the best age of the church. "While the total number of the volumes of the scriptures published is 37,000 less than the previous year, the number of pages is slightly in excess. The number of pages printed in 1890 was 76,932,300 this year it was 77,040,700, or about three-quarters of a million more. This is the largest number of pages printed in one year by the China agency, and will give some idea of proportions to which the work had grown when, in common with all forms of Christian work, it was suddenly interrupted by the events of the past year. "The number of Mandarin bibles manufactured is worthy of special notice. There were received from the printers no less than 16,500 complete Bibles, and 5,000 copies were in press on December 31. Ten years ago an edition of 2,000 copies was thought sufficient to meet the demand for several years. This fairly indicates the growth of the native church during this period, for it is from native Christians that the demand for these Bibles comes."

FAIR OPENS TONIGHT.

A force of men has been working day and night preparing for the opening of the Trades council fair at the Saengerbund hall tonight. The booths have all been built, the decorations are nearly completed, the exhibits will be in place by evening and a rousing opening is expected. All members of organized labor are requested to meet at the city hall at 7:15 this evening to participate in a parade, which will be headed by the Wayne Tent band. The call for this parade is published elsewhere and the committee hopes that there will be a liberal turnout of marchers promptly at the hour set. At 10:30 there will be a free dance and many other amusements have been provided.

OFFICIAL NEWS FROM TOKIO IS REASSURING.

JAPAN IS TRUSTING RUSSIA

ACCEP'S STATEMENT AS MADE
IN GOOD FAITH.

Washington, April 10.—The Japanese minister, Mr. Takahira, today received official advice from the foreign office at Tokio entirely dispelling the alarming reports as to a Russo-Japanese rupture and showing that the Japanese government accepted the latest declaration of Russia on Manchuria with the same sense of satisfaction that it had been received by the United States. Mr. Takahira called at the state department and informed Secretary Hay of the gratifying turn of events.

The position of Japan, as now defined in the highest official quarter, is practically the same as that of the United States. A copy of the recent Russian communication was delivered to Japan at the same time it was given to this government, and although the texts differ slightly they are alike on all material points. The Japanese government now makes known that it accepts this declaration as made in entire good faith, and like the United States it is quite satisfied to leave the Manchurian question in its present status.

As the other powers already have indicated their acceptance of the Russian declaration, the course of Japan removes the last possibility of division, and appears to restore the harmonious concert which has thus far proceeded in dealing with China.

PRESS ABANDONS RESERVES.

St. Petersburg, April 10.—3 p. m.—The Russian press is abandoning that reserve with which it first discussed the government's declaration on the subject of Manchuria. It now declares that the joy with which the British press greeted China's refusal to sign the Manchurian agreement has merely postponed the signing of a new understanding with China, since the convention would be advantageous to China. One paper says: "Our London friends overlooked the fact that in the discussion of the signing of the agreement they did not hasten the evacuation of Manchuria, but strengthened Russia's position."

THE SEWER MIX-UP.

The South Wayne sewer problem has not yet been settled, but is in course of adjustment. The board, City Attorney Shambaugh, Mr. McCulloch and his attorneys, Barrett & Morris, and Contractor Peter had another lengthy consultation this morning and a new contract is being drawn which will be sent to Mr. Adams to sign. The difficulty lies in getting together on a price for the tunnel work. As matters now stand Mr. McCulloch can get out without any loss, but Mr. Adams has a contingent profit in the contract which he insists on having. This looks very nervy to the board of works on the part of Mr. Adams, but he appears to be built on a nervy plan. City Attorney Shambaugh is of the opinion, however, that the matter will be settled within a day or two and the contract will be let to Peter or someone else. Mr. Adams is in the hole and if he wants to get out he will have to get out mighty quick, at the board has notified all parties that the question must be settled once for all within the stipulated twenty days.

HURT IN A RUNAWAY.

Mrs. Rittenhouse, residing at 164 East DeWald street, was painfully injured in a runaway accident yesterday afternoon. While driving on Berry street, near Ewing, another driver collided with her carriage, and her horse becoming frightened ran away, overturning the rig and throwing the occupant out. Mrs. Rittenhouse was quite badly out and bruised about the head, and received medical attention at the office of a nearby physician. The horse was captured some time later on Pearl street, with a part of the buggy still attached to it.

ANNIVERSARY OF LEE'S SURRENDER TO GRANT.

PATRIOTISM GLOWED IN SONG

LY CELEBRATED.

Appomattox day, the anniversary of Lee's surrender to General Grant thirty-six years ago, was appropriately observed by Fort Wayne veterans Tuesday evening under the auspices of encampment No. 51, Union Veterans Legion. The exercises were held in the court house assembly room, where the stage had been tastefully decorated under the direction of Col. John A. Scott. The national colors, portraits of prominent union generals, stacks of arms and electric lighting effects were tastefully combined in an effective setting that was very attractive.

The assembly room was completely filled when Colonel McClelland called the meeting to order and introduced Major James Liggett as presiding officer. Following the invocation by Rev. S. D. Spellman the Choral quartet rendered a selection and Congressman Robinson was introduced.

TITLE AND NOW.

In part Mr. Robinson said: "Then and now presents a theme that brings both joy and sorrow to every patriotic American heart—years of joy, gratitude and thanksgiving when we remember the final victory of April 9, 1865; and sorrow when we see the passing of that magnificent army, the army that saved the union and crushed once and forever the serpent of disunion that first arose more than forty years ago. It brings sadness when we see the ravages in the ranks that thirty-six years of time have wrought. That army marched to duty and to do, and its success at Appomattox was not alone theirs, but the success of the hopes, the efforts and the aspirations of every comrade in the field, and of every patriotic man and woman living today. It is indeed a sorrow that this great army is passing away. Almost every day within the confines of even this congressional district a soldier's life goes out; the frosts of many winters are upon the heads of the comrades here tonight.

"On that day thirty-six years ago the greatest general of the south yielded to General Grant, the greatest general of the war, and possibly of the world. Thus was established the integrity and the indestructibility of the union. Grant's record as a soldier and publicist are open pages upon the records of the world."

The speaker traced the career of Grant through the war, told of Lincoln's unvarying support to the western general even at a time when the northern press and public were crying out against him. After the victory had been won Lincoln fell by the assassin's hand, yet he lived long enough to see the fruition of his fondest hopes—the supremacy of law upon every foot of American soil. Continuing, he said:

"It was left to his successors to readjust conditions after the struggle to witness that final march of the battle-scarred veterans through the streets of Washington on that last great review which brought home the truth of the sentiment that the only debt the country can never repay is the debt it owes its soldiers. And this is as true in peace as it was in war." Congressman Robinson concluded with a magnificent tribute to the veteran soldier, and he was cordially applauded.

DR. MCGOOGAN SPEAKS.

Following a cleverly rendered recitation of Mrs. Ella Keel, Dr. G. B. McGowan was introduced. Dr. McGowan referred to the birth of Grant seventy-nine years ago at Point Pleasant, Ohio, sketched his career in boyhood, at West Point, in the Mexican war, in business at Galena, Ill., and spoke of the outbreak of the civil war. "Here," said the speaker, "the babe grown to manhood offered his services to his country, and he gave the best years of his life to its cause. Coming down to that scene thirty-six years ago tonight we gaze upon the greatest tableaux in American history. Lee, majesty in bearing and dignity—Grant in impressive simplicity demonstrating the grandeur of the nobility of the heart and the mastery of the brain. There stood the old warriors; the picture was the culmination of the war; the landmark of the rebellion. As Summer four years before was the opening of the struggle, here was the close, reached through a pathway strewn with patriots' bodies. It was the sun total of all the battles, all the charges, all the heartaches, all the deaths, all the woes of four years of dreadful conflict. Grant here represented not only his own greatness, but the glory of every man who had left his home to fight for his country.

"Of the fruits of that great struggle I need speak but briefly. The old world had said a free government could not exist; here it was tried in the crucible. Veterans, let me say tonight that while your praises will be sung and monuments will be erected to your valor for all time, the grandest tribute to your honor, your bravery and your patriotism is a united country and an unsullied flag."

Mrs. Bertha Fry pleased the veterans immensely with her recitation, "The Two Vests," and was compelled to respond to an encore, while little Gladys Greek, who followed, also scored a triumph.

THE PRIVATE SOLDIER.

The closing address was delivered by James E. Graham, who said in opening that the committee had asked him to tell the audience that there were some private soldiers in the army. In part, Mr. Graham said:

"I am glad to say there were a few private soldiers in that great army, yet I do not propose to draw invidious distinctions between private and the officer, for together they constituted the symmetry of the army. Each was absolutely necessary to the other, and it is an honor to have been a common soldier behind the musket. War was not our trade, our profession or our desire, but in the hour of the country's peril there was developed a patriotism that was sublime.

"There is no place on earth where human nature is so developed as in the army. If there's a mean streak in a man anywhere, it will develop there. And just as truly the splendid attributes of nobility of nature and of character are brought to the surface in the ranks. A friend there was a friend down to the last drop in his canteen and the last crumb in his haversack. And it was not the bully and the braggart that made the patriotic fellow, stripping though he soldier, but the quiet, determined, may have been, was the one who, with steady nerve behind his ashcan face, met the bullets' hail sturdily and splendidly. A thorough comradeship, too, existed between the common soldier and the good officer.

"It is forty years since that first shot in Charleston harbor started the most gigantic struggle of modern times—a strife that excelled anything witnessed by English-speaking people, and on which hung the destinies of the nations of the earth. Upon it were turned in hope the faces of all the down-trodden peoples of the earth, while tyrants looked on in dismay. And after four years of terrible conflict, when America's best blood had been shed to enrich American liberty—after the auction block had been wiped out by the sacrifice of blood and treasure—at Appomattox, April 9, 1865, it culminated. There in the eyes of the world the union army wrote in the gaze of the world the declaration that popular government, before an experiment, had become a fixed fact, and that this country was to have but one flag.

"Comrades, it is nearly thirty-six years since we stacked arms, folded our tents and returned to peaceful pursuits as a part of the citizenship of the greatest country the world has ever known. The union soldier has had no small part in making this country what it is today. I undertake to say that no class of citizens has done more in war and in peace for the glory of this country than has the common soldier of the union army."

Little Miss Greek and Robert Hamilton gave a dialogue that was highly enjoyed, and in response to an encore Master Hamilton sang a solo. After another selection by the quartet, Major Liggett dismissed the audience with a word of appreciation upon the part of the veterans. The observance was successful and enjoyable throughout.

SAVHARD SERVICE

CAPT. CHARLES E. REESE AT HOME ONCE MORE.

WON HONORS WITH THIRTIETH REGIMENT.

HE WILL NOT RUN FOR MAYOR

EXPECTS TO RE-ENTER THE MILITARY SERVICE.

After a service of nearly two years under tropic suns with the army in the Philippines, and looking the picture of health, Capt. Charles E. Reese, late of the Thirtieth United States volunteer infantry, reached Fort Wayne last evening. With him was Mrs. Reese, who joined her husband in the orient last October. It was known that Captain and Mrs. Reese were homeward bound, but friends hardly expected them so soon, and their arrival last evening took all by surprise. They were driven at once to the home of Captain Reese's parents, 131 Montgomery street. Both were greatly fatigued with the long journey from San Francisco, and after a brief chat with members of the family they retired.

This morning Captain Reese was besieged upon every hand by friends who desired to join in his welcome home after a service that, though brief as to duration, was arduous and distinguished. Captain Reese was commissioned a captain of volunteers in the Thirtieth regiment in the summer of 1899, and during the organization of the regiment at Fort Sheridan he was made adjutant, the regiment leaving Fort Sheridan in September of that year.

SAVHARD SERVICE.

The Thirtieth was one of the fighting regiments of the Philippine campaign. Until January 4, 1900, it was stationed at Pasay, a few miles south of Manila, and then joined General Schwan's expedition in its dash inland through the southern portion of Luzon, getting into frequent skirmishes with large bodies of the natives, and pushing on through much hardship with a persistency that could not fail to triumph. Fortunately its losses were comparatively small.

After the raid by General Schwan the Thirtieth was stationed in the province of Tayabas, and here it remained until the order came to prepare for the return to America. During this time the regiment occupied thirteen different stations, and upon the soldiers devolved the duty of not only fighting the insurgents, but also of clearing the country of the robber bands. This had been completely accomplished before the regiment's return.

GLAD TO GET HOME.

"Yes, we are glad to get home once more," said Captain Reese to a reporter for The Sentinel. "We had intended making a number of stops eastward from San Francisco, but we were with a party of other officers in a special car and I think every one of them was seized with the same desire to reach home as soon as possible. We made a stop at Salt Lake City, and then hurried onward.

"I am pleased with army life, and expect to enter the regular service," continued Captain Reese, "though Mrs. Reese and I will first spend a month or two getting rested up from the trip. We have both enjoyed excellent health in the Philippines, and I expect some time to go back. I was given an opportunity to take the examination for the regular service at San Francisco, but preferred to make a visit at home and enjoy a brief rest before re-entering the service.

PRETTY LIVELY LIFE.

"I think we had our share of work in Luzon," said he, "but we enjoyed it. I was in ten brushes with the natives, but escaped without a scratch. During the march of General Schwan's column we were into it pretty often, and during the last year, when we were stationed in Tayabas province, we kept continually on the move. This was necessary, both to prevent the gathering of the insurgents and to drive out the robber bands, which were often worse than the insurgents. Not a night passed that we did not have men out on scouting expeditions, and they got into some lively tilts with the natives.

Capt. Reese believes the acquisition of the islands was in every way desirable, and he says the resources of the country are simply inexhaustible. "This is the universal feeling among Americans in the Philippines," said the captain, "and I believe the time will come when their importance and desirability will be recognized generally. I would not for one moment favor giving them up.

CONDITIONS IMPROVING.

"I am certain, also, that at least in the province of Tayabas, conditions are improving; the natives are friendly and anxious to adopt our system of government. We established schools at every point possible and round the natives not only intelligent but anxious to learn. When the Thirtieth left the province the natives were sincerely sorry to see us go. They gave an entertainment in our honor, delivering addresses both in Spanish and English. The more educated Filipinos say Aguinaldo's government, if established, would only be a repetition of the bondage under which the islands suffered while dependents of Spain. I look to see the natives become loyal to the United States. There is surely a wonderful future in store for the islands when this is accomplished."

During the past year Captain Reese has been acting as provost judge and as collector of internal revenue at Tayabas, and he has picked up a very fluent command of the Spanish language. Mrs. Reese remained for the greater part of the time at Manila, where her husband made frequent trips on business of the army. They brought with them an immense collection of curios of every kind.

NO POLITICS FOR HIM.

When The Sentinel asked Captain Reese concerning the rumor that he was to be tendered the republican nomination for mayor, a hearty laugh was the rejoinder.

"I received no telegram advising me of the fact," said he. "I have never considered the matter, and would not do so. I have no desire to enter politics, for I expect to continue in the army."

It is understood that Captain Reese has been most highly recommended for a commission as lieutenant in the regular branch of the service, and it is plainly evident that his plans are to remain in the military service. His appointment as mustering officer when the regiment reached San Francisco entailed a great deal of additional labor, and delayed somewhat Captain Reese's return to Fort Wayne.

Privates Storch, Miller and Hake, three other Fort Wayne boys who made honorable records with the Thirtieth regiment, also arrived at home last evening, and are being welcomed by friends today.

SOCIETY PEOPLE WHO USE PERUNA.

MR. TEFFT. JOHNSON AND MISS ABBE JOHNSON, OF WASHINGTON, D. C.

PERUNA HAS MANY FRIENDS among society people everywhere. They all recommend it as a fine tonic, excellent for coughs, colds and hoarseness to which they are so liable. Late hours, irregular meals, the ceaseless rounds of social duties, the consequent sapping of nervous vitality, make the society man or woman especially liable to affections of catarrhal origin.

Vice President Roxa Tyler, prominently connected in Chicago, and Vice President of the Illinois Woman's Alliance, in a letter written from 910 East 10th street, says: "During the past year I gradually lost flesh and strength until I was unable to perform my work properly. Peruna gave me new life and restored my strength."

George Backus, in "Way Down East" Co., says: "I know of nothing so efficacious in the speedy relief from hoarseness as Peruna. It is invaluable to all persons who use their voice in public work. It almost immediately relieves hoarseness and renders the voice strong and natural."

Miss Maude Lillian Berry, one of the leading opera-singers of America, writes: "Long ago my nerves were in danger of absolute and hopeless collapse from the strain of hard work, study and excitement. A friend sent me a bottle of Peruna and prevailed upon me to take it. I did, with marvelous results."

A book on catarrh sent free by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Robert B. Mantell, the great romantic actor, says: "Peruna is refreshing to the nerves and brain. It makes me feel like a new man."

Joplin, Mo., March 25, 1900.

It is with gratitude to you and sympathy for suffering women that I write this. I miscarried September 15th, and flooding followed. Three doctors attended me but did me no good. I had almost given up hope of recovering, when on December 12th, my husband brought home a Ladies' Birthday Almanac, in which I saw a testimonial from a lady afflicted like myself. I immediately got a bottle of Wine of Cardui and commenced taking it. From the first dose it seemed to help me. When I began I could not sit up. Some times I could not raise my head to take a drink without help. The doctors said I would have to undergo an operation as soon as I had strength to stand it. Thanks to Wine of Cardui, I am well without an operation and weigh 123 pounds, which is more than I ever weighed before. I have done all my own work since January 15th.

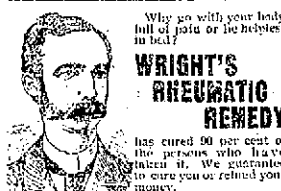

Mrs. T. H. ELLIOTT.

Hundreds of women are slipping into untimely graves who would be well and happy if some one would induce them to take a bottle of

WINE OF CARDUI

That is the way Mrs. Elliott's life was saved when she suffered miscarriage and her strength was ebbing away on account of the terrible flooding which followed. The Wine brought her speedy relief and eventually restored her to perfect health. And now she can do all her own work. The doctors could not help Mrs. Elliott. They suggested "operation". Wine of Cardui has completely cured nine out of every ten cases of female troubles arising from disordered menstruation or from the accidents of pregnancy or childbirth. It fits a woman for every duty of life. No suffering woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.

NEW COMMITTEEMEN MEETDEMOCRATIC CITY COMMITTEE REORGANIZED.

H. C. Underwood Elected Chairman and W. F. Ortleib Secretary—Will Take No Pbill.

The new democratic city committee elected last week met last evening at the new quarters in the Arcade and proceeded to organize. There was nearly a full representation, only one ward being missing when the roll was called. Chairman Shambaugh called the committee to order and made a brief address congratulating the party on the choice of so excellent a ticket to be voted for this spring and urging the committeemen to exercise every effort to get out a full vote in their respective wards and roll up such a majority next month as will stand as a model for future committees to pattern after. He then announced that the first business in order was the election of a chairman. H. C. Underwood was placed in nomination and unanimously elected after which Will P. Ortleib was chosen secretary. The chair announced that he would appoint an advisory committee within a day or two, after which matters pertaining to the conduct of the approaching campaign were taken up and discussed; it was decided not to take a poll of the city this spring as the records of the last election are sufficiently near correct for all practical purposes. MR. SANBORN'S RECITAL.

The organ recital last evening at Westminster Presbyterian church by E. Russell Sanborn, organist of Trinity Episcopal church, though not exactly a success in point of attendance, was nevertheless one of the finest entertainments of its kind ever heard in Fort Wayne. The audience, though small, was a representative one and included many of the leading musicians of the city. What was lacking in numbers was made up in enthusiastic applause of Mr. Sanborn's masterful work and he was obliged several times to respond to encores. Mr. Sanborn is a player of remarkable ability and his rendition of several most difficult compositions was beyond criticism. Besides perfect technique Mr. Sanborn possesses great power of interpretation for which the program gave great scope. Owing to a slight imperfection in the operation of the organ, Mr. Sanborn was forced to omit several numbers he had intended giving and the program was necessarily somewhat shorter than was arranged for. The young Bostonian is a musician of unusual attainments and while his reception last night was not what it should have been, it is safe to say that at his next public appearance here his reception will be much more cordial. Mr. Sanborn was assisted by G. Louis Wefel, tenor soloist, who gave two selections in a most acceptable manner and responded to an encore.

COMES FROM BRAIN.

Phosphates Found on the Skin and Thrown Out From Pores.

We know that active brain work throws out the phosphate of potash, for this product is found on the skin after excessive brain work; therefore, brain workers, in order to keep well, must have proper food containing phosphate of potash to quickly and surely rebuild the used-up tissue. That one can obtain such food has been proven in thousands of cases among users of Grape-Nuts Food.

This contains phosphate of potash in minute particles, just as it is furnished by nature in the grains.

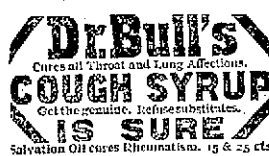

This product makes from albumen the gray matter that builds the brain and fills the nerve centers.

In no way can this gray matter be made except by the action of phosphate of potash upon albumen, and this mineral should be introduced to the body just as it comes from Nature's laboratory, and not from the drug store. The system is more or less fastidious about taking up the needed elements, and, as might be suspected, it will favor the products of Mother Nature rather than the products of the drug shop, however valuable the last may be for certain uses.

Lawyers, journalists, doctors, ministers, business men and others, who earn their living by the use of the brain, are using Grape-Nuts Food. It is manufactured for a reason and was originated by an expert. The value of the Grape-Nuts Food has been demonstrated beyond question.

INVOLVES IN ALLEN COUNTY.

Several nights ago the family of Mr. Bleke, residing three miles north of the city on the Leo road, was roused by a terrific struggle in progress in his yard between the family dog and some unknown animal. Mr. Bleke secured his revolver and fired three times at the animal, but failed to hit it, and did not even succeed in stopping the fight between the enraged animals. Mr. Bleke's two sons, armed with a garden rake and a sledge hammer, next took a hand in the matter, and after the rake had been broken in a vain attempt to beat off the intruder, John Bleke succeeded in landing a blow from the hammer, which put an end to the struggle. Then it was discovered that the dog had been battling with a wolf.

Perhaps Aguinaldo would rather make a speech accepting American sovereignty than to write a manifesto. Being a statesman he has a natural distrust of committing things to paper.

This is the Washington Post's suggestion: "For president, Hon. Tom Johnson, of Ohio; for vice president, Hon. Tom Taggart, of Indiana. Platform: The Tom Tom is mightier than the wind-mill."

While the powers are preparing to raise the Chinese forts at Taku, the Chinese leaders of the interior are raising the same kind of Rail Columbia that started the interesting proceedings of last year. There are yet left some Chinese who insist.

It is pointed out the Edward VII. of England has never made a speech that was the occasion of any trouble in his own realm or in the diplomatic world. It is not strange, Edward's job in the main, before he became king, consisted in being a good fellow, and what speeches he made were always more calculated to tickle than taunt.

The czar has apparently recognized the faults in the Russian educational system that have produced such constant and dangerous unrest among the university students. In appointing General Van Novsky as minister of public instruction he tells them that the time has come for "an immediate and thorough revision" of the system, and that he wishes him to undertake the work of "renovating and reorganizing" the schools, convinced that he "will bring to the work of educating the Russian youth civil sympathy and sagacity ripened by experience." General Van Novsky is said to be a man of great administrative ability and of liberal views, and entirely sympathetic toward the students. A little "sympathy and sagacity" seem to be what is most needed in this particular department of Russian administration.

The former minister of instruction, M. Bogolyuboff, was of the old-fashioned type, believing only in stern repression. He was shot by a student—another illustration of the old definition of the Russian system, despotism tempered by assassination. The gradual "removal" of a number of these old-timers, giving the czar opportunity to appoint modern men in their stead, will have a distinctly ameliorating influence in Russia.

There is not much left in the Boer republics but the land and the fighting buglers seem determined to defend that to the last. It is difficult to see wherein Lord Kitchener has made any real progress during the past three months in the direction of an end to the war. There are a fair share of British successes, so far as mere occupancy of the enemy's ground is concerned, but the Boers care nothing for that. Their strong play is fighting and flying—a style of campaign so full of hardships as well as substantial losses for the enemy that it amounts to more than victories in general engagements.

FREE DELIVERY RULES.

Supt. A. W. Mchen, of the free delivery bureau of the postoffice department, has issued a circular of instructions governing rural free delivery throughout the country. It directs that petitioners for such service be heads of families, who shall show the relative population along the route, character of the roads, principal vocations of the people and distances each one now has to travel to receive mail. A map of the route proposed is required.

The petition must be endorsed by either a senator or representative in congress. Each route must be over twenty miles long, serving at least 100 families, and those desiring the delivery must hereafter be prepared to put up suitable boxes. These boxes will be entitled to the protection of the United States statutes.

Rural carriers are not required to deliver ordinary mail to houses standing back from the main road. They may carry other business than United States mail. Patrons are required to co-operate by keeping the roads up to the standard in all weather. The maximum pay for carriers now is $500 per annum for a full route of approximately five miles traveled on shorter routes. Carriers are to carry a supply of stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards and must cancel stamps on all letters they collect.

GAVE THEM MORE TIME.

Prospects for a settlement of the Painters' and Paperhangers' strike are not very rosy just now. The masters met last evening in their hall over the Citizens' Trust company offices, but no action was taken toward settling the trouble. The sentiment of the meeting was that inasmuch as the strikers had not officially noticed the proposition made by the contractors a week ago, it was thought the union desired to have more time to consider the matter, so nothing was done. Meetings are held every day by the strikers in their hall at 62 Clinton street, and recruiting committees are out securing additions to the ranks of the union. The Women's Label league adopted resolutions sympathizing with the strikers at their regular meeting last night.

ANOTHER LECTURE COURSE

MANAGERS OF PEOPLE'S COURSE

Will Open October 4 With Lecture by Dr. Gunsaulus, of Chicago—No Club League Course.

The series of the People's Lecture Course, which concluded with the lecture by Father Cleary last evening has been most successful and while the gentlemen who are behind the project have not realized anything, all expenses have been cleared. The course was not given with a view of making money, but merely to give the people a high class entertainment at moderate cost and as there were no expenses except the remuneration for the various attractions, it was possible to give the course at very moderate prices. The success of the People's course has been so marked that the promoters have decided to give another series of entertainments the coming winter and the secretary is concluding arrangements with several prominent lecturers and writers to appear. With a view of still further decreasing the expenses of the course the committee of management has decided not to secure attractions through lyceum bureaus, and a saving of about twenty-five percent will thus be effected.

There will be seven attractions in the course and a selection will be made from the following: Booker T. Washington, president of Tuskegee negro college, the foremost negro scholar and writer of this age; Hon. Charles Towne, populist candidate for vice-president; Robert J. Burdette, humorist; Edwin Markham, author of "The Man With the Hoe"; Mrs. M. Wright Sewall, president of the International Council of Women; Charles Major, author of "When Knighthood was in Flower"; ex-President John P. John, of DePaul university; John Rummell, reader; H. L. Bridgman, secretary of the Peary Arctic expedition, and associated with him Dr. E. A. Cook, surgeon of the Belgian Antarctic expedition of '97-'99; Indiana University Glee club; Wm. R. French, director of the Art Institute, of Chicago, and several others. The lecturers will begin in the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ and the same plan that prevailed last year will be pursued.

The opening lecture of the course will be delivered on October 4th by Dr. Gunsaulus, pastor of the Central Congregational church of Chicago, successor to Rev. N. Dwight Hillis.

NO CLUB LEAGUE COURSE.

At the last meeting of the executive committee of the Women's Club league, it was definitely decided to abandon the idea of giving another lecture next year. The course this winter was not a success financially, and the league lost about $300. The Club league has aimed to give entertainments of the highest class and the expense incurred in doing so was nearly $1,500. In view of the small attendance at the lectures this winter it was apparent that public interest was not maintained and on account of the large deficit the ladies did not feel justified in incurring the risk of further financial loss by giving another course.

TALKING MACHINES.

It has constantly been the aim of the manufacturer of the Graphophone to make their product the best that brains could devise and skill could construct. To this end, the most expert experimentalists that the new art has developed have been engaged in the service of the American Graphophone Company, and its factory at Bridgeport, Conn.—by far the largest talking machine plant in the world—is equipped with the most modern and approved machinery, a great deal of it of a special nature, carefully designed and patiently constructed for the particular purposes for which it is employed. The result that most interests the public of such a sagacious business policy is the perfection of the finished product of this company which is offered for sale by the Columbia Phonograph Company. The constant improvement in the Graphophone is not confined to the machines themselves, but extends also to records, blanks and all incidental articles. Columbia records are the loudest, choicest, smoothest, sweetest and cheapest records obtainable. They are the most brilliant records on the market and are furnished in almost endless variety.

The Columbia Phonograph Co., No. 88 Wabash avenue, Chicago, headquarters for Graphophones and talking machine supplies of every kind, will send you catalogues on application.

Among the newest constructions of the Russian navy to engage the energies of the shipbuilding plant at Nicolaiev will be a new cruiser of 18,000 tons, 17,000 horse power and eighteen knots speed. Besides this, the same yards will launch a protected cruiser of 6,400 tons, 19,500 horse power and twenty-three knots.

THE GLORY OF CITIZENSHIP

Minneapolis Divine Captivates Large
Audience at Library Hall
With Lofly Sentiment.

Liberty and American citizenship were the themes chosen by Rev. James M. Cleary, the eminent Minneapolis Catholic clergyman, in his lecture at Library hall Tuesday evening, and the large audience that sat enthralled beneath the spell of Father Cleary's silvery eloquence were given a new conception of liberty and a more exalted understanding of the glories of American citizenship.

It was the closing number of the Peoples' Lecture course, and from the moment Father Cleary was presented by Rev. John R. Quinn he had the closest attention of his audience. Conviction and honesty are manifest in every expression, and Father Cleary in upholding the spirit of liberty drew a clear distinction between liberty and license, and pleaded for the respect and observance of the law. He deplored dishonesty and greed, denounced the liquor traffic, and urged the necessity of keeping separate the civil government from the church.

RIGHTS ARE RESPECTED.
Continuing Father Cleary said in part:

"The rights of the individual are more respected now than ever in the history of civilization. But such rights are built upon manhood, not upon force, ancestral honor, wealth or so-called social equality. Under this free and liberty loving government, man is entitled to all consideration belonging to a free citizen. It is not necessary for him to be born under the American flag to deserve these rights. General Shields was born on Irish soil and yet was not afraid to fight for the honor of America, but Benedict Arnold, an American citizen, betrayed the trust imposed in him and played the traitor. No one questions which was the better patriot, he who was born on native soil or he who first saw the light in a foreign land. The qualities which tend toward the making of a true, honest and loyal citizen are not the mere accident of birth, but the result of principles of high manhood. It is right to pay deserved tribute to some foreign-born citizen and unjust to sneer at those who come to America and identify themselves with American interests. The word 'citizenship' in connection with citizenship is not appropriate. It implies the right to demand and such rights as it implies are God-given rights. No government can give them."

ELEMENTS OF GOVERNMENT.

"There are three elements of free government—authority, liberty and religion, or, to put them in other words, government, the individual, the church. Each should be harmoniously related to the other, so each could pursue its own path without invading the domain of the other. We have the widest liberty consistent with justice, order and law. An American citizen may do as he pleases as long as he does not encroach upon the rights of others, as long as he does right. Such government does not mean allegiance to titled sovereigns, no claim to rule by 'right divine,' no government centering in an individual family where not fitness but accident of birth constitutes the claim. When America threw off the yoke of such beliefs and such governments, she said, 'No one rules by might, except God.' The people are not the subjects of government, the government belongs to the people. The highest notion of patriotism is not to serve a king but to serve a country."

WHAT LIBERTY MEANS.

"Liberty does not mean exemption from all restraint or privileges. Every right is to be protected, but to enjoy protection one must have the same regard for the protection of others. Free will acts are bounded by the rights of others. We are like links on a golden chain. If one link is broken the rest must suffer. There can be no freedom where there is no obedience to law," said Abraham Lincoln. This respect for the law, which is another view of liberty, should be extended into an observance of legislative enactments. If such are not practical or become obnoxious, the way to get rid of them is to follow General Grant's idea. He said the way to get rid of a law was to enforce it. If conduct is to be regulated by rules and regulations it is well to have well defined and wise rules. Religion is a necessary force of society. It reaches where no other influence can reach. Loyalty to country is loyalty to God. But it is the work of the church to teach that, not the business of the civil authorities. While religion is necessary as a sustaining force, it too, is as free as the winds of Heaven. No church has the right to expect privileges or rights from the government. That would only serve to bring the church into contempt."

ABOUT THE CITY HALL.

The city council met last night in regular session. Councilman Scheid introduced a resolution asking that the Grand Army of the Department of Indiana, which meets this year at Logansport, come to Fort Wayne next year. Councilman Hinch introduced a similar resolution inviting the national Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen to meet in Fort Wayne in 1903. Both resolutions were unanimously passed. The committee of the whole reported favorably on the franchises of the Maumee Valley Traction company and the McIlhenny Decatur franchise, after substituting the word "failure" for "refused" in a certain section. A numerous signed petition asking that the Pennsylvania railroad company be required to place a watchman at the Collegiate crossing was referred and resolutions providing for the improvement of Lafayette street were passed. The board of health reported that their appropriation is exhausted and asked for a special appropriation for $1,215.86, which, with the recommendation of the committee on health and finance. The report of the board of works on waterworks was referred and ordinances appropriating $3,500 for election expenses and $500 to the bridge account were passed to the third reading.

The committee on street lights will make a third attempt to meet this evening.

The council adjourned to meet next Tuesday night in special session to hear and consider the report of the special water works committee.

The council and city officers will have their pictures taken for display in the council chamber.

Building permits were today issued to Clint B. Wilson, frame house on Hoagland avenue, cost, $1,000; L. F. A case of diphtheria was reported this morning from 116 Smith street and a case of scarlet fever from South Webster street.

The fire department was called to St. Joe boulevard this morning, where some burning grass between a couple of houses threatened to do some damage. The fire was extinguished without loss.

A sewer in the alley west of the city hall was reported caved in this morning. The alley was barricaded until the break can be repaired.

(The Farming World.)

Over 60 per cent. of all the sugar manufactured in the world is made from sugar beets. The difference between cane sugar and beet sugar can be detected only by an expert, and what little difference there is, is in favor of the beet sugar.

You are using beet sugar every day if you use any granulated sugar at all.

Beet sugar is absolutely pure white granulated sugar. A beet sugar factory cannot manufacture any brown or yellow sugar. Each man woman and child in the United States consumes on an average 65 pounds of sugar a year.

The inhabitants of the United States spend more money for sugar than they do for wheat flour.

It requires $500,000 to build and equip the average beet sugar refinery.

One ton of wheat per acre is a large yield. Sugar beets often yield twenty tons per acre.

One acre of land planted to sugar beets will yield about one and one-half tons of sugar in a season.

building of at least 25 modern beet sugar refineries each year to take care of the increase alone.

The operating season of a sugar refinery is known in the business as "the campaign" and lasts from 100 to 150 days of twenty-four hours each, stopping only in the case of breakdowns or for an occasional clean-up. A 1,000 ton beet sugar refinery in a campaign of 150 days requires as follows: 150,000 tons of beets, 22,000 tons of coal, 2,300 tons of coke, 9,000 tons of limestone, 120,000 barrels or a like capacity in sacks, and miscellaneous material to the value of $15,000. It employs 300 men and pays out $125,000 for salaries and labor. It pays to the farmers $500,000 for sugar beets, and the pulp produced during the campaign is worth in actual value as food for live stock at least $100,000.

At four dollars per ton the farmer can make five times as much per acre from sugar beets as from the average farm crop.

All the papers were drawn by Breen & Morris, who represent a number of creditors.

H. G. Keegan, trustee for the J. F. Schell Investment Co., has commenced suit against the Hamilton National bank for an accounting; demand, $18,040.22.

The county commissioners are today in the country inspecting bridges.

JERSEY CENTRAL MEN LOOK

ORDER MAY COME ANY TIME

SITUATION PRACTICALLY IN

NOT YET TOO LATE FOR THE
ROAD TO COMPROMISE.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 10.—The employees of the Central Railroad of New Jersey are still in a state of suspense. They say they expect to be called out almost any hour, although it is possible that they may not be called out at all.

The local grievance committee at Ashley, one of the terminal points of the road, say it is now up to the brotherhood chiefs to say whether or not there shall be a strike. It is admitted that it is still within the power of Vice President Warren to avert the threatened trouble, but a delay of twenty-four hours may be too late.

Only the members of the local organization and Chairman White, of the grievance committee, know positively the result of yesterday's poll on the strike question. While the employees are unusually reticent, enough can be gleaned from their conversation to justify the statement that they are only waiting for the brotherhood leaders to say quit work.

It is believed that the Jersey Central officials are fortifying themselves against a tie-up, as many men who are known by the employees here to be railroaders, reached this city late last night.

There are also a large number of former employees of the Lehigh Valley railroad in this city. But it is not known whether they would accept positions with the Jersey Central if a strike is ordered.

Nearly all of them were members of the brotherhood at the time of the trouble on the Lehigh Valley.

WHAT CHIEF ARTHUR SAYS.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 10.—Asked if he had received any information today concerning the vote being taken on the Central Railroad of New Jersey in reference to the proposed strike, Grand Chief Morrissey, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said:

"I have heard nothing except through the newspapers. It will likely be several days before the votes are all in and I do not expect any definite information until that work has been completed."

Grand Chief Arthur also stated that he had received no advice bearing on the matter.

CONDITIONS UNCHANGED.

New York, April 10.—It was said at the office of the Central Railroad of New Jersey today that no change had taken place in existing conditions between the employees and officials of the road.

There was a rumor to the effect that an informal meeting might be held today or tomorrow between Vice President Warren and some of the participants in last Saturday's conference, but diligent inquiry failed to confirm this in the slightest degree.

Scrofula

THE OFFSPRING OF HEREDITARY BLOOD TAIN.

Scrofula is but a modified form of Blood Poison and Consumption. The parent who is tainted by either will see in the child the same disease manifesting itself in the form of swollen glands of the neck and throat, catarrh, weak eyes, offensive sores and abscesses and of tenacious white swelling—sure signs of Scrofula. There may be no external signs for a long time, for the disease develops slowly in some cases, but the poison is in the blood and will break out at the first favorable opportunity. S. S. S. cures this wasting, destructive disease by first purifying and building up the blood and stimulating and invigorating the whole system.

J. M. Seals, 115 Public Square, Nashville, Tenn., says: "Ten years ago my daughter fell and cut her forehead. From this wound the glands on the side of her face became swollen and burst. Some of the best doctors here and elsewhere attended her without any benefit. We decided to try S. S. S., and a few bottles cured her entirely."

S. S. S. makes new and pure blood to nourish and strengthen the body, and is a positive and safe cure for Scrofula. It overcomes all forms of blood poison, whether inherited or acquired, and no remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood. If you have any blood trouble, or your child has inherited some blood taint, take S. S. S. and get the blood in good condition and prevent the disease doing further damage.

NAMED THE ROAD

THE NEW LINE CALLED THE

CITY COUNCIL ADDRESSES B. OF

R. T. MEN.

NEWS OF THE SHOP AND RAIL

AN OLD DISPATCHER PREPARING TO RETIRE.

Local officials of the Wabash received notice from the general offices this morning that the proposed connecting line from New Haven to Butler would be part of a division to be known hereafter as the Fort Wayne and Detroit road. The Montpelier extension, now under construction, will become a part of the Toledo and Chicago road. As stated in The Sentinel several days ago, the material for the Fort Wayne and Detroit road has been purchased and construction would be crowded to completion so that trains can be running by mid-summer. On that score there is nothing to add today.

OLD DISPATCHER TO RETIRE.

April 20 J. H. McEvoy will retire from the position of train dispatcher in the Grand Rapids and Indiana offices to assume a less arduous position in the telegraph department of the road at Kalamazoo, Mich. This move was decided upon several days ago, when Mr. McEvoy went to Supt. J. W. Hunter with the request that the change be made. He has worked steadily for several years and the confinement has injured his health, and it is on this account that Mr. McEvoy has sought an easier position. Mrs. McEvoy and some of the children went to Kalamazoo yesterday to prepare for the move there and Mr. McEvoy will go as soon as he can be released from his duties here. Kalamazoo is the old home of the family. Mr. McEvoy has been a train dispatcher over thirty years and in all that time no wreck or accident which could be laid at his door occurred. This is a record that few train dispatchers can exhibit. He began railroading as a messenger boy on the Michigan Central in 1863. He soon became an operator. In 1870, when he was only 19 years old, he was made a dispatcher by the Michigan Central officers and continued in the service of that company in that capacity up to 1875. That year he came to Fort Wayne and took a similar position with the Wabash company. In 1881 the Wabash offices were removed to Peru and Mr. McEvoy went there also and became chief dispatcher, a position he held nine years. In 1890 he returned to Fort Wayne and took his present position.

INVITATION TO THE B. OF R. T.

The city council did the proper thing last night when it unanimously passed Councilman Hench's resolution that an invitation be given the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen to hold their 1903 convention in this city. A copy of the resolution will be given to C. A. Scott, who will represent the local brotherhood at the Milwaukee convention in May, and by him be laid before the convention in a manner that will undoubtedly have a great influence and possibly result in the convention coming here two years hence. In the council proceedings, printed in another column of today's Sentinel, will be found the resolution in full.

"T'WAS A GRAND SUCCESS.

Like all its predecessors, the annual ball of the local lodge of the Order of Railway Conductors, given at the Elektron hall last night, was a brilliant success, viewed both in a financial and social way. In fact, it was even more of a success than former balls, because the conductors had the assistance this time of the Ladies' auxiliary, without which they would not have been able to have made the refreshment feature the notable success it proved to be last night. Both halls were used, the G. A. R. room

Clouds of Medicated Vapor are inhaled through the mouth and emitted from the nostrils, clearing and purifying all the inflamed and diseased parts which cannot be reached by medicine taken into the stomach.

BLOOD

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

for dancing and the west and smaller room for the banquet, for pedro playing and as a retreat for the dancers between numbers. Nearly 500 tickets had been sold and it is believed that nearly every one of them was used, so great was the attendance. The pedro games were unusually interesting. The ladies' prizes were carried off by Mrs. Munter and Miss Maggie Sullivan in the order named, and the gentlemen's prizes went to A. W. Caskey and Frank Greer in the order named. After the games came the banquet. The dance closed with a ladies' prize waltz, which was awarded to Miss Kieckley. The committees to whom is due a great portion of the credit for the success of the affair were composed of the following ladies and gentlemen:

Arrangements—Mrs. William Kittelman, Mrs. George W. P. Bonter, Mrs. C. M. Bushy, Mrs. J. C. Craig, Mrs. J. M. Wells, George W. P. Bonter, T. P. McArdle, A. J. Dawson, C. M. Bushy, M. O. Ginty.

Reception—Mr. and Mrs. Gard Tuckey, Mr. and Mrs. Warrenburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. Waterson, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kanaga, Mrs. J. P. Morgan, Mrs. H. Stoncifer, O. Owens and A. G. Estry.

Conductor J. P. Morgan, of the Pittsburgh, was floor manager, assisted by Messrs. A. J. Dawson, Thomas Coleman, F. I. Stump, H. Stoncifer, Fred Denhi and T. P. McArdle.

JAMEY, THE MIGHTY HUNTER.

Engineer Emil Jamey, of the Pittsburgh, has been immortalized and the pen of the bard of the Pittsburgh, Operator G. W. Applegate, did it. The following poem tells the story so well that further comment is unnecessary:

JAMEY'S DREAM.

The "sign" was in the "blue bill,"
There were warblers in the air,
And our "dead-shot" Mr. Jamey
Was hoping to bag a pair.

The ducks were sailing through the breeze,
And the geese were quacking loud,
While our "dead-shot" Mr. Jamey
With his shot-gun felt so proud.

As he traveled o'er the marshes broad,
He could hear the shot-gun pound,
And to him there came a vision
Of the happy hunting ground.

The place where all good hunters go,
When their race of life is run,
And our "dead-shot" Mr. Jamey said,
"Thank the Lord I own a gun."

In the vision grand he saw a throne,
And upon it sat our "Hear Oreck Bill,"
Shooting mallards, geese and pin tails,
To please his sovereign will.

Bill then arose upon his throne,
And said while the bells did chime,
"O' my brothers of the shot-gun order,

—G. W. Applegate.

(Written when Jamey and Koonce were slaughtering ducks at Hanna in the last days of March, 1901.)

TWO UNFORTUNATE SHOPMEN.

There were two accidents among Pittsburgh shopmen yesterday, neither being very serious. F. E. Walda, a carpenter, was engaged in making some repairs at the coal docks, when he had one of his fingers mashed in some manner. W. P. O'Brien, a machinist, had two or three fingers pinched and skinned last evening in a painful manner, but none of the bones were broken. Both men will be unable to work for a few days.

SOLDIERS PASS THROUGH CITY.

Three hundred and fifty members of the Eleventh United States Infantry passed through the city today, en route to the Philippines. They traveled from Buffalo to Chicago over the Nickel Plate, and stopped a half-hour here for dinner. There were two trains, the first being made up of baggage cars and a sleeper, the latter occupied by the officers and their wives. The second train was composed entirely of sleepers. The first train was in charge of Conductor C. W. Ziegler, was brought in here by engine 15, with Engineer Daniel McFee at the throttle, and taken to Chicago by engine 171, with Engineer M. F. McCarthy at the throttle. The second train was in charge of Conductor George Harsh, brought in by engine 12, with Jerry Lynch at the throttle; taken to Chicago by engine 91, with Engineer Frank P. Sleeper at the throttle.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Michael J. Murphy and C. Starke, Pittsburgh shopmen, are sick.

Casper Lehmkueller, of the Pittsburgh blacksmith shops, is sick and off duty.

J. Weber, who was sick a month, resumed work in the Pittsburgh round house this morning.

Earl Rapine, a Pittsburgh switchman, is taking a lay off to attend to some private affairs.

Engineer C. A. Prince, of the Pittsburgh, is off duty on account of a sprained shoulder.

After a two months' lay off, Conductor B. F. Howley has returned to his duties on the Pittsburgh road.

John H. Fisher, the veteran Pittsburgh shopman, is in Pittsburgh upon a special mission for the company.

W. E. Paul, of the Pittsburgh planing mills, has gone to Hamlet, Ind., to attend the wedding of a relative.

After a two weeks' tussle with the grip, E. J. Ruch was able to report for duty at the Pittsburgh copper shop this morning.

Pittsburgh Fireman VanFerson is sick and off duty. Fireman L. M. Kyler is off duty on account of private business.

B. E. D. Stafford, general salesman for the Ewald Iron company, of St. Louis, was in the city today, calling upon his customers.

Ed Rist and P. Maley, boilermakers at the Wabash shops, are at work again, after a few days' visit with friends in Indianapolis.

A. J. Huber, of the Pittsburgh planing mills, and his sister, went to Delphos, Ohio, this morning, to attend the funeral of a relative.

A. Bowman, Peter Neumann and Peter Schreiter are new employees at the Pittsburgh round house, commencing work there this morning.

M. H. Durnell and Rodney Ellenwood, Pittsburgh engineers, are looking after private business and have taken a lay off for that purpose.

Conductor Long took out Pennsylvania train No. 37 this morning, vice Conductor J. P. Morgan, who is taking a lay off for private business.

When completed, work on the western division of the Baltimore and Ohio, now in progress, will shorten the route between Pittsburgh and Chicago six miles.

President Ashley, of the Wabash, was eighty years old yesterday. He is a most vigorous man for his age, having the appearance of a much younger person.

Brakeman Campbell, formerly of the Michigan Southern, has taken a position on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road and will have headquarters in this city.

Yesterday Engineer J. A. Keplinger celebrated his sixty-third birthday anniversary and today he is nursing an ulcerated tooth. Otherwise he is a most hearty and active man.

C. C. Gasterline, of the Pittsburgh shops, is still off duty. He is afflicted with boils, a large one having located upon his left arm, near the elbow, and making a sling for the limb necessary.

John Rhinesmith, of the firm of Rhinesmith & Simonson, who has been in California several months, is now on his way home. He left Los Angeles on the 5th inst., and is due here some time this week.

E. M. Hall, Grand Rapids and Indiana brakeman, who has been disabled for freight service several months by a lame arm, is now on the extra passenger list, the approaching excursion season making an opening in that line.

William J. Neizer, the well known tinner at the Pittsburgh shops, is out after a confinement on account of a severe attack of the grip, which came near developing pneumonia. He is still suffering from the effects of the illness and will probably not be able to work before next week.

Cornelius Denchy, notice of whose approaching marriage was made in The Sentinel a few days ago, is taking a lay off to prepare for the event. The wedding will take place at St. Peter's church, on the 16th, and will be followed by a honeymoon at Gallion, the home of the bride's relatives.

Julie Henry, a truck builder at the Pittsburgh shops, is having more than a fair share of misfortune at present. His wife and all of his children are sick, some of them with scarlet fever, and in consequence Mr. Henry is quarantined and deprived of the privilege of earning money just at a time when his expenses are at the maximum point. None of the sick ones are considered in a dangerous condition.

Pittsburgh trainmen were grieved this morning to hear of the misfortune of Charles Taylor, a baggage-master on the road, running between Crestline and Chicago. His little daughter, who, since the death of Mrs. Taylor, has been making her home with a relative in LaPorte, died in that city last night. The little one

Old at 30, Young at 70.

Age comes when the vitality is gone. Some are old at twenty, some are young at seventy. It's whenever the nerves wear out—you feel old when hands and limbs tremble—memory poor—temples throb—heart flutters—muscles twitch—brain fagged out—irritable—frequent headaches—sleeplessness—morning languor—mind clouded. The period is reached when nature must have assistance; it will not recruit itself—the nerves have lost their force, their strength, their system influence. This is the time when days number as years in showing age. You feel it—you look it. There is one way only to escape from this decline—rebuild nerve waste and renew the blood, and that is the secret of the surprising cures made by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—marvelous in supplying Nerve Force. They find youth for weak and despondent people.

FOUND YOUTH AGAIN.

Mr. Levi Bromley of Norway, N. Y., writes: "For several years past I have found myself gradually failing in health. My nerves were very weak and my blood thin and cold, it seemed almost impossible to keep warm. I tried many different remedies, but without any permanent benefit until I began taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills. The first box I took helped me and now after taking nearly five boxes, I feel almost youthful again so wonderfully beneficial has been their effect on my blood and nerves."

The Portrait and Signature of Dr. A. W. Chase are on the genuine. The above is a fac simile of the package. 50c a box, of dealer Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., 18 Elliott St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. Charles Hubbard of No. 137 Swan street, Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I was suffering from nervous headaches, weakness and inability to sleep—I did not seem to right myself—so weak—and got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Kellar & Denchler's Drug Store, No. 757 Seneca street, and they did the business—put me back on my feet again—my headaches are gone and I eat and sleep well again. This is recommendation enough for me."
